THE LITURGICAL CELEBRATION

INTRODUCTION TO WEEKDAY CELEBRATIONS

This pastoral introduction is offered as a supplement to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal and the General Norms for the Liturgical Year and the Calendar. It presumes these documents and is in no way intended to replace them. The pastoral introduction cannot be read apart from them.

1 Whenever the Christian community gathers to celebrate the eucharist, it shows forth the death and resurrection of the Lord in the hope of his glorious coming. While the Sunday assembly is the clearest sign of the paschal mystery, the faithful are invited to take part in Mass often on weekdays as well, even daily.¹

2 The daily worship of the Church, however, comprises not only the eucharist but also the Liturgy of the Hours: its purpose is to sanctify each day and the whole range of human activity. The Liturgy of the Hours extends to the different hours of the day the praise and thanksgiving, the memorial of the mysteries of salvation, the petitions and the foretaste of heavenly glory that are present in the eucharistic mystery. Like other liturgical services, the Liturgy of the Hours pertains to the whole body of the Church and so, wherever possible, the more important hours may be celebrated in common in parish churches. The Liturgy of the Hours is recommended to laypeople whenever they gather together and is entrusted in a special way to priests, deacons, and members of religious communities.²

- In particular, if circumstances require, the Liturgy of the Hours may be joined to the celebration of weekday eucharist. On other occasions in parishes, it may be celebrated instead of eucharist, for example, when a priest is not available.³

3 The weekday gathering for eucharist will usually be smaller than the Sunday assembly and the celebration will be less solemn. Weekday Mass therefore may be less formal, more intimate in tone, and simpler in style. The nature of the group and the circumstances of the celebration may necessitate some adaptation of the usual way of celebrating, as in the case, for example, of Masses with children.⁴

4 The special character of weekday Mass should enhance and never diminish the full and active participation of all those present. They have an individual right and duty to contribute their participation in ways differing according to the diversity of their order and liturgical function.

- Though simpler than the Sunday Mass, weekday Masses should involve a full complement of ministers in proclaiming the word, leading the psalm, speaking the intercessions, preparing the gifts, and ministering communion.
- Even at weekday Mass, great importance should be attached to the use of music and the singing of the parts of the Mass. Such enhancement is not reserved only to more solemn occasions, but will be especially appropriate during the major liturgical seasons.

² See General Instruction of the Liturgy of the Hours (hereafter, GILH), nos. 10-12, 20-22, 27-30.

⁴ See Congregation for Divine Worship, Directory for Masses with Children, 1 November 1973 (hereafter, DMC).

- Since there usually is only one reading before the gospel, the chants between the readings may be contracted. Outside Lent it is permitted “to use either the psalm with Alleluia as the response, or the responsorial psalm followed by the Alleluia with its verse, or just the psalm, or just the Alleluia.” In Lent, “either the responsorial psalm or the verse before the gospel may be used.”⁵
- A homily, be it brief, is strongly recommended on weekdays, especially the weekdays of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter and on other occasions when people come in considerable numbers.⁶ Ritual and other special Masses deserve a homily as an integral part of the celebration.
- The breaking of the bread and the sharing of the one cup take on a special significance at weekday Masses if smaller numbers permit all those present to share in the one bread and the one cup.
- Some churches have a smaller chapel where weekday Masses are celebrated. This should be worthy and arranged to facilitate the liturgy. A chapel designed for the reservation of the eucharist is arranged for private prayer and adoration and may not respond to the demands of good liturgical celebration. For example, it is more in keeping with the nature of the celebration that there be no reservation of the sacrament at the altar from the beginning of Mass. The eucharistic presence of Christ is the effect of the celebration and should appear as such. When Mass is celebrated, the principal ways in which Christ is present in the Church emerge clearly one after the other: first in the assembly, then in his word, also in the person of the presiding priest, and finally in the eucharistic elements.⁷

THE SEASONS OF THE LITURGICAL YEAR

5 Advent has a twofold character which is reflected in the two-part structure of the season. Until 16 December, the liturgy is directed to the second coming of Christ at the end of time. Watching in joyful expectation, God’s people look forward to the time “when Christ will come again in majesty and glory” (Preface of Advent I). The period from 17 December till Christmas eve is more directly a time of preparation for the celebration of Jesus’ birth, the first coming of God’s Son. The liturgical texts recall the circumstances of his birth and invite us to prepare for it with joy, “our hearts filled with wonder and praise” (Preface of Advent II).⁸

- On weekdays, in the first period of Advent, the great prophesies of Isaiah and the story of John the Baptist are read, and the prayers tend to express both the historical and the eschatological dimensions of the season. In the second, more intensive phase of Advent, each day is provided with proper prayers looking forward to the coming feast, and the liturgy climaxes in the gospel accounts of the events preceding Christ's birth, introduced by the sublime, messianic gospel verses that are taken from the "Great Antiphons" (O Antiphons) and are sung at Mass with the Alleluia before the gospel reading.

- The weekdays from 17 December to 24 December inclusive take precedence over obligatory memorials.⁹

6 Christmas is a celebration of the revelation of God in the flesh that extends from The Birth of the Lord until the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. The feast of Christmas has its own octave, during which the feasts of Saint Stephen (26 December), Saint John (27 December), and the Holy Innocents (28 December) are celebrated. These saints are seen as having a particular relation to the Christmas mystery and are traditionally honoured as "companions of Christ." The octave day itself, 1 January, is observed as the solemnity of Mary, Mother of God. The celebration of Christmas also includes the solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. This short but diverse season commemorates the incarnation and the revelation of this mystery to the world. It marks the beginning of the whole mystery of salvation in Christ.

7 Lent is a time of preparation for Easter. It is a penitential season marked by prayer, meditation on the Scriptures, fasting, almsgiving, and works of charity. For those chosen to be initiated at the Easter Vigil, it is a time of purification and enlightenment. For those who are full members of the community of faith, it offers opportunities for penitence and baptismal renewal. Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and continues until Holy Thursday when, in the evening, the Easter Triduum commences with the Mass of the Lord's Supper.¹⁰

- Ash Wednesday, a day of fast and abstinence, sets the tone for Lent through the call to turn away from sin and to be faithful to the gospel. Ashes, a stark sign of lenten penance, are placed on those who come forward either during the eucharist or after a Liturgy of the Word. The priest, the deacon, or designated layperson may distribute the ashes. The ashes come from the branches blessed the preceding year for Passion Sunday. Because of the pastoral benefit for the people of the blessing of the ashes, it is preferable that ashes be blessed on each occasion that they are to be distributed.
- Penitential services and the celebration of the sacrament of penance bring the faithful to repentance. Further, the celebration of weekday Mass in Lent is an eminently suitable way to pray and listen to the Scriptures. When meeting with the elect, however, other forms of prayer, for example, the Liturgy of the Hours or a liturgy of the word, would be more appropriate. Some special rites may be celebrated with the elect on the weekdays of Lent, notably the Presentation of the Creed and of the Lord's Prayer.

¹⁰ See GNLYC, no. 28.

- Ash Wednesday and the weekdays of Holy Week take precedence over all feasts and solemnities; only feasts and solemnities take precedence over the other weekdays of Lent.¹¹
- Toward the end of Lent, the bishop, surrounded by the local Church, consecrates the chrism and blesses the oils in a special Mass.

8 Easter is a celebration of the Lord's passover through death to risen life. It lasts for fifty days. It is a festive season when all rejoice and sing Alleluia. The Easter candle, symbol of the risen Lord, is lighted at the daily liturgy until Pentecost. The Acts of the Apostles, read at weekday Masses, tells of the witness of the early Church to the resurrection and of the Church's life and growth in the Spirit; the Gospel of John highlights the centrality of the paschal mystery in the Church's life.

- The first eight days (the octave) centre on the Lord's post-resurrection appearances and are celebrated as solemnities of the Lord. They can offer special occasions for mystagogical catechesis. On the fortieth day after Easter, the Ascension is celebrated (if it is not a holyday of obligation, it is transferred to the Seventh Sunday of Easter).¹²

9 Ordinary Time completes the yearly cycle. It invites the Church to appreciate the ministry and message of Christ in all its aspects. Those who regularly take part in the weekday Masses in Ordinary Time will have opened up more lavishly for them the treasures of holy Scripture, and, with a greater hunger for the word of God aroused in them, they will be nourished more each day by the words of the Lord. For this reason the lectionary for the weekdays of Ordinary Time provides semi-continuous gospel readings from the Synoptic Gospels extending over one year and semi-continuous readings from the Old Testament and the apostles extending over a two-year cycle.

- The weekdays of Ordinary Time are regularly taken up by the celebration of solemnities and feasts and are combined with the memorials of saints. Should more than one optional memorial fall on the same day, only one of them is celebrated. Votive Masses, Masses for Various Needs and Occasions, and Masses for the Dead may also be used from time to time.¹³

CHOICE OF TEXTS FOR WEEKDAY MASSES

10 Special presidential prayers are given for each weekday in the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. Unless a solemnity, feast, or memorial takes precedence, these texts should normally be used, as also the proper seasonal prefaces.

11 The choice of presidential prayers for weekdays in Ordinary Time is vast. The priest may freely choose any of the prayers from the thirty-four weeks in Ordinary Time, the prayers of an optional memorial or the Mass of a saint inscribed in the martyrology for that day (possibly using texts from the appropriate commons),

¹¹ See GNLYC, no. 16:1, 2.

¹³ See GNLYC, nos. 14, 16.

the prayers from the Masses for Various Needs and Occasions, a Votive Mass, or a Mass for the Dead.¹⁴ (Ritual Masses should be used only when the rites themselves are celebrated.¹⁵) Sometimes the priest will choose an entire formulary, sometimes just the opening prayer from one of the formularies given. The Prefaces of Ordinary Time I-VIII and the Prefaces for General Use I-VII may be used for weekdays in Ordinary Time. Other suitable prefaces may also be chosen.

12 This rich collection of texts makes possible a variety of themes for prayer that are suited to the liturgical assembly and adapted to its needs and those of the rest of the Church and the world. In planning the celebration, including the choice of texts, the priest considers first and foremost the general spiritual good of the assembly rather than his personal outlook. He should remember that the choices are to be made in consultation with the ministers and others who have a function in the celebration, including the faithful in regard to the parts which more directly belong to them.¹⁶

- To facilitate the use of a variety of texts, the prayers for Ordinary Time in this edition of the Sacramentary have been arranged in two ways: (a) a four-week cycle of prayers and (b) a general collection of opening prayers, prayers over the gifts, prayers after communion for careful selection.
- Ritual Masses and the corresponding readings from the lectionary may be used (when the rites themselves are celebrated) on any day except the Sundays of Advent, Lent, and Easter, on solemnities, Ash Wednesday, the weekdays of Holy Week, the octave of Easter, and the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls).¹⁷ On these days the Mass of the day is celebrated, but the solemn blessing proper to the ritual may be used. If the ritual Mass is not used on a day on which it is permitted, one of the readings of the ritual Mass may nonetheless be used.
- The Mass texts provided in Masses and Prayers for Various Needs and Occasions enable the celebration to take account of the different circumstances of the Christian life and the specific needs of the Church, both local and universal, and of the world. They may be used as circumstances arise or at fixed times but should be used sparingly, that is, when the occasion requires. They may replace an obligatory memorial only when required by some real need or pastoral advantage. The colour of the day or season is used, though violet may be chosen if the Mass has a penitential character.¹⁸

¹⁴ See GIRM, no. 316; see Congregation for Divine Worship, Instruction Liturgicae instaurationes, 5 September 1970, no. 3:4.

¹⁵ See GIRM, nos. 330, 334.

¹⁶ See GIRM, nos. 313, 323.

¹⁷ See GIRM, no. 330.

¹⁸ See GIRM, nos. 326-334.

- Likewise, Votive Masses are options provided in favour of the faithful's devotion, but should not be used automatically on fixed days of the week.¹⁹
- Masses for the Dead in particular should be used sparingly since every Mass is offered for both the living and the dead, and there is a remembrance of the dead in each eucharistic prayer.²⁰
- Even with such a large choice of texts available, the priest may sometimes need to adapt prayers. In prayers for the dead, for example, besides adapting the texts for gender and number, inappropriate words should be omitted depending on the circumstances in which they are used. Likewise, in Masses with children the prayers may be adapted to children's needs so that they become an expression of their own life and religious experience.²¹
- For the liturgy of the word, the lectionary provides readings for each day of every week throughout the year, texts which are used for the most part unless a solemnity or feast occurs. Often the lectionary provides a semi-continuous cycle for the first reading and gospel. It is important to respect this pattern, so that the faithful who hear the word of God proclaimed day after day may receive an ordered unfolding of the message of the various books. On memorials of saints, therefore, it is better to use the weekday readings unless certain proper readings are assigned, such as on memorials of saints mentioned in the Scriptures themselves (for example, Mary Magdalene). For Votive Masses or Masses for Various Needs and Occasions, though the special readings in the lectionary may sometimes be appropriate, it is again often better to use the weekday readings.²²
- When the continuous reading is interrupted during a particular week, the priest should take the entire week's plan of readings into consideration and then may combine readings, or transfer readings to a different day, if necessary omitting the less significant selections.²³

PROPER OF SAINTS

13 The celebration of the paschal mystery of Christ's passion, death, resurrection, and glorification lies at the centre of the liturgical year. For this reason the minds of the faithful must be directed primarily toward those feasts of the Lord on which the mysteries of salvation are celebrated in the course of the year. Accordingly, the Proper of Seasons is given precedence over the feasts of saints, in order that the entire cycle of the mysteries of salvation may be celebrated in the measure due to them.²⁴

¹⁹ See GIRM, no. 329:3.

²⁰ See GIRM, no. 316:3.

²¹ See DMC, no. 51.

²² See GIRM, no. 319; see LM, nos. 82, 83.

²³ See GIRM, no. 319; see LM, no. 82.

²⁴ See Vatican Council II, Constitution on the Liturgy Sacrosanctum Concilium, 4 December 1963 (hereafter, SC), art. 108.

- Certain feasts of the Lord are found in the Proper of Saints rather than in the Proper of Seasons since they are attached to particular days, for example, the Presentation of the Lord (2 February), the Annunciation of the Lord (25 March), the Transfiguration of the Lord (6 August), the Holy Cross (14 September). Because they celebrate particular aspects of the mystery of our redemption in Christ, they are linked to the temporal cycle and should be celebrated with fitting solemnity even when they occur on weekdays.

14 “In celebrating this annual cycle of Christ’s mysteries, the Church honours with special love the blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God, who is joined by an inseparable bond to the saving work of her Son. In her the Church holds up and admires the most excellent effect of the redemption and joyfully contemplates, as in a flawless image, that which the Church itself desires and hopes wholly to be.”²⁵

- The liturgical calendar appropriately and closely integrates the commemoration of Mary into the cycle of her Son’s mysteries. The major feasts of Mary clearly manifest a primary Christological dimension: Mary, Mother of God (1 January), the Visit of the Virgin Mary to Elizabeth (31 May), the Assumption of the Virgin Mary into Heaven (15 August), the Birth of the Virgin Mary (8 September), the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin Mary (8 December). The Church again and again rejoices in the motherhood of Mary as it reflects on the mystery of the incarnation of the eternal Son of God.
- Mary is also commemorated in a special way even in the seasonal cycle, notably on the Sundays and weekdays before Christmas as well as throughout the season of Christmas. In addition an optional memorial of the blessed Virgin Mary may be observed on Saturdays in Ordinary Time when there is no obligatory memorial.²⁶

15 “The Church has also included in the annual cycle days devoted to the memory of the martyrs and the other saints. Raised up to perfection by the manifold grace of God and already in possession of eternal salvation, they sing God’s perfect praise in heaven and offer prayers for us. By celebrating their passage from earth to heaven, the Church proclaims the paschal mystery achieved in the saints, who have suffered and been glorified with Christ; it proposes them to the faithful as examples drawing all to the Father through Christ and pleads through their merits for God’s favours.” Thus “the feasts of the saints proclaim the wonderful works of Christ in his servants and display to the faithful fitting examples for their imitation.”²⁷

16 Lest the feasts of the saints take precedence over the feasts commemorating the very mysteries of salvation, only those saints of universal significance are commemorated by the whole Church and others are left to particular Churches, nations, or religious families.²⁸ A special place is given in the calendar to the feasts of the apostles, the holy men and women of the New Testament, the martyrs, and the saints of the Church of Rome.

- The planning for the celebration of the feasts of the saints must take into account several basic principles, among which are the nature of the liturgical season as well as the needs, religious preparation, and aptitude of the participants.²⁹
- These choices should be made with the primacy of the season in mind and should be based on the spiritual good of the faithful. The priest especially should avoid imposing his own personal preferences upon the people. In particular he should not omit the readings assigned for each day in the weekday lectionary too frequently or without sufficient reason, since the Church desires that a richer portion of God's word be provided for the people.³⁰
- Eucharistic Prayer I may be used appropriately on the solemnity, feast, or memorial of those saints who are mentioned in it. The name of the saint of the day or the patron saint of the place may be included at the appropriate place in Eucharistic Prayer III.
- The saints of the calendar have been provided with brief biographical notes. These place the saint in a historical context and indicate ways in which they may serve as models for the Christian life. These notes can be of help in introducing the liturgy of the day, in preaching on the readings, and in making the general intercessions. They are not suitable to be read out in the form given.

SOLEMNITIES, FEASTS, AND MEMORIALS

17 The different types of celebration are distinguished from each other by their importance and are accordingly called solemnities, feasts, or memorials.³¹ The rank of the celebrations is indicated for each day. If there is no indication, the celebration is an optional memorial.

- Solemnities are the days of greatest importance and begin with Evening Prayer the preceding day. They are provided with an entire proper Mass and sometimes their own vigil Mass.³² The Gloria is appropriate as the opening rite and the Creed is used. Solemnities can be celebrated on any day except the Easter Triduum, the Birth of the Lord, the Epiphany of the Lord, the Ascension of the Lord, and Pentecost Sunday; the Sundays of Advent, Lent, and Easter; Ash Wednesday, the weekdays of Holy Week, and the octave of Easter. A solemnity which is impeded by one of these days is transferred to the closest day which is not a feast or a Sunday.³³
- Feasts are celebrated within the limits of a natural day.³⁴ They also are provided with an entire proper Mass. When a feast of the Lord (the Presentation of the Lord, the Transfiguration of the Lord, the Holy Cross, the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome) is celebrated on a Sunday in Ordinary Time, the prayers proper to that feast are used. All feasts may be celebrated on weekdays, except on Ash Wednesday, the weekdays of Holy Week, and the octave of Easter.

- Memorials are either obligatory or optional. Obligatory memorials are celebrated as given in the calendar. However, obligatory memorials falling during the season of Lent are celebrated only as optional memorials. Optional memorials may be celebrated, as desired, but not on Ash Wednesday, in Holy Week, or the octave of Easter. On the weekdays of Advent from 17 December to 24 December, during the octave of Christmas, and on the weekdays of Lent, the opening prayer may be that of the optional memorial. On the remaining weekdays of the year, the weekday Mass or the optional memorial may be celebrated.³⁵
- Memorials usually do not have a complete Mass formulary. In most cases only an opening prayer is given. The remaining texts may be chosen from the weekday Mass or the appropriate common. For the seasons of Advent, Lent, and Easter, texts are appropriately taken from the weekday Mass of the season. The preface may be from those which correspond to the saint (for example, pastor, virgin, martyr), from those indicated for weekdays, or any other appropriate preface.
- The Masses in the Proper of Saints may be celebrated as Votive Masses, except where special Votive Masses are already provided. The texts from the Proper of Saints may need to be adapted for use in a Votive Mass.
- If reference is made to more than one common, one or the other may be used according to pastoral need. In addition to the commons which express a special characteristic holiness (for example, of martyrs, virgins, or pastors), the texts from the common of holy men and women, referring to holiness in general, may always be used. For example, if a saint is both a martyr and bishop, either the common of martyrs or the common of pastors or the common of holy men and women may be used. The prayers from the commons may need to be adapted in number and gender.

SECOND WEEK OF ADVENT

FIRST WEEK OF ADVENT

MONDAY

OPENING PRAYER

Lord our God,
keep your servants alert and watchful
as we await the return of Christ your Son,
so that when he comes and knocks at the door
he may find us vigilant in prayer,
with songs of praise on our lips.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Accept, Lord, our offerings, chosen from among your many gifts,
and let this present expression of our reverence become for us the pledge of eternal redemption.

SEE TITUS 3:4

OCTAVE OF CHRISTMAS

26 DECEMBER STEPHEN, FIRST MARTYR FEAST

The feast of Stephen, who was martyred in Jerusalem about 35, has been celebrated on this day since the fourth century. A Greek-speaking Jew, Stephen was one of seven appointed by the apostles for special service (diakonia). He died confessing Christ and seeking divine mercy for those who were stoning him. Named in the Roman Canon (Eucharistic Prayer I), he is remembered for preaching with wisdom and the Spirit (Acts 6:10), as one “full of grace and power” who “did great wonders and signs among the people” (Acts 6:8).

Lord God,
we celebrate Saint Stephen’s birth into heavenly glory,
who even as he died prayed for his persecutors;
grant that we may follow his example
and learn to love our enemies.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

you bring salvation to your Church,
and in this celebration of the martyr Stephen
you give your people joy.

We make our prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord.

27 DECEMBER JOHN, APOSTLE, EVANGELIST
FEAST

John was a first-century Galilean fisherman, son of Zebedee, who, with his brother James, left their nets to follow Jesus. With Peter, these “sons of thunder” form an inner group among the twelve, and John is probably the “disciple whom Jesus loved” of the Fourth Gospel. According to ancient tradition, he is the author of this Gospel and also of three letters and the book of Revelation. He is remembered for his contemplative reflection on the life and death of Jesus and for his emphasis on Christian love.

OPENING
PRAYER

Eternal God,
through the blessed apostle John
you unlocked the mysteries of your Word.
Let the sublime wisdom he proclaimed capture our minds and our hearts.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Sanctify, O God, the gifts we offer and grant that at this sacred banquet
we may drink in the hidden wisdom of your eternal Word, revealed to the apostle John at this same fountain.

28 DECEMBER THE HOLY INNOCENTS, MARTYRS

FEAST

In an attempt to kill the child Jesus, Herod ordered the massacre of all male children, two years old and under, in and around Bethlehem. The Holy Innocents have been honoured as martyrs for Christ since the fourth century and their feast has been celebrated on this day since the sixth century. In remembering them, the Church laments the suffering and death of children everywhere and honours all who die in innocence.

OPENING PRAYER

On this day, Lord God,
the Holy Innocents proclaimed your glory
not with words but by their death.
Give us the grace to proclaim our faith
not only with our lips but also with our lives.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

to all who have received your holy gifts.

30 DECEMBER THE HOLY FAMILY

FEAST

This feast was established as part of the Christmas season in 1921 following promotion of the cult in the nineteenth century; it was linked to the octave of Christmas in 1969. The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, itself subject to the difficulties and social pressures of its time, is offered as a model for Christian family life today.

If Christmas falls on a Sunday, the feast of the Holy Family is celebrated on 30 December.

in the Holy Family you give us the model of a household drawn together in love.
Grant that we may follow their example and be welcomed with joy into your home in heaven.

Loving God,
guardian of our homes,
when you entrusted your Son
to the care of Mary and Joseph,
you did not spare them the pains
that touch the life of every family.

Teach us to rely on your word,
that in our trials as in our joys
we may be clothed in gentleness and patience and united in love.

for the blessings you give us
through Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

YEAR B

O God,
you cradle us at the beginning of life
and embrace us at our journey's end,
for you love us as your own.

Bind our families together
and deepen our faith,
that, like the Holy Family of Nazareth,
we may grow in wisdom,
obedient to your word.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
in the splendour of eternal light,
God for ever and ever.

YEAR C As your sons and daughters, O loving God,

called and united by your eternal Word.
Teach us to ponder the mystery of Nazareth,
that we may always find in you
the source of our strength and the unity of our families.

who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
in the splendour of eternal light,
God for ever and ever.

that, after the trials of this present life,
we may be welcomed into their company for ever.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

BLESSING: Solemn Blessing, page 912.

1 JANUARY MARY, MOTHER OF GOD

SOLEMNITY

The Virgin Mary was already venerated as Mother of God when, in 431, the Council of Ephesus acclaimed her Theotokos (God-bearer). Her role in the mystery of the incarnation was celebrated on this day in Rome in the seventh century but was soon eclipsed by other feasts of Mary. Restored to the liturgical calendar in 1931, and to this day in 1969, the feast celebrates from a Marian perspective the Word made flesh, and so enriches the observance of the octave of Christmas and provides a solemn beginning to the New Year.

OPENING PRAYER

O God,
through the fruitful virginity of blessed Mary you offered to the human race
the treasures of eternal salvation.
Let us experience the power of her prayers,
for through her we have received the author of life, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

ALTERNATIVE

OPENING PRAYER

Most high God,
you come near to us this Christmas season
in the child born of the Virgin Mary.
In the depths of darkness, she gave birth to light;
in the depths of silence, she brought forth the Word.

Grant that we who ponder these things in our hearts may recognise in her child
our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
in the splendour of eternal light,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

You, O God, are the beginning of every good and bring all things to perfection.
On this feast of Mary, the Mother of God,
grant that, as we delight in your first gifts of grace,
we may rejoice one day in their glorious fulfilment.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 JANUARY THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD
SOLEMNITY

Epiphany is the earliest Christmas feast, originating in the East in the third century and passing to the West in the fourth century. A celebration of the divine “manifestation” or “coming,” in the East it commemorates the baptism of the Lord and in the West the visit of the Magi. These wise men represent all peoples on earth, to whom the mystery of the incarnation is now revealed.

Where the solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord is not observed as a holyday of obligation, it is celebrated on the Sunday between 2 January and 8 January, which is then considered its proper day in the calendar.

OPENING
PRAYER

God of mystery,
on this day you revealed your only Son to the nations
by the guidance of a star.
We know you now by faith;
lead us into that presence
where we shall behold your glory face to face.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

ALTERNATIVE
OPENING
PRAYER

Lord God of the nations,
we have seen the star of your glory
rising in splendour.
The radiance of your incarnate Word pierces the darkness that covers the earth and signals the dawn of peace and justice.
Make radiant the lives of your people with that same brightness, and beckon all the nations
to walk as one in your light.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
in the splendour of eternal light,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Lord,
accept the gifts of your Church,
which offers you today not gold, frankincense, and myrrh,
but the one who in these gifts is proclaimed, offered,
and received,

who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Drawing from the Eastern tradition of Epiphany, the West has remembered the baptism of the Lord on the octave of the Epiphany since the eighth century. The feast was formally introduced into the Roman calendar in 1960 and is now celebrated on the Sunday after the Epiphany as the conclusion to the season of Christmas. It commemorates the revelation of Jesus as God's beloved Son, the Christ, anointed by the Spirit.

If the Epiphany of the Lord is celebrated on Sunday, 7 or 8 January, then the Baptism of the Lord is celebrated on the following Monday.

OPENING PRAYER

Almighty and eternal God,
when Christ was baptised in the river Jordan,
the Holy Spirit came upon him
and your voice declared him your beloved Son.
Keep all who are reborn of water and the Spirit
as children of adoption in whom you are well pleased.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

Or: O God,

ALTERNATIVE

OPENING YEAR A PRAYER

God of the covenant,
you anointed your beloved Son
with the power of the Holy Spirit to be light for the nations and release for captives.

Grant that we who are born again
of water and the Spirit
may proclaim with our lips the good news of his peace and show forth in our lives the victory of his justice.

We make our prayer through Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
in the splendour of eternal light,
God for ever and ever.

YEAR B God of salvation,
in the river Jordan you bathed your Son Jesus in glory and revealed him as your obedient servant.

rend the heavens and come down to us.

that we who are reborn in his likeness
may walk with him the path of obedience.

Let us hear your voice once again,
that we may recognise in your beloved Son
our hope of inheriting eternal life.

ASH WEDNESDAY

The ashes used today come from the branches blessed the preceding year for Passion Sunday (Palm Sunday).

When necessary the blessing and the giving of ashes may also be celebrated outside Mass. In this case the introductory rites and the liturgy of the word should be celebrated as indicated below, and the rite concludes with the Lord's Prayer and the blessing and dismissal.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

GREETING

After making the sign of the cross, the priest greets the people, using the following greeting or one of the greetings from the Order of Mass.

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father,
and Christ Jesus our Lord
be with you all.

The people answer:

And also with you.

The priest, deacon, or other suitable minister may very briefly introduce the Mass of the day. The opening rite is omitted and the opening prayer follows immediately.

OPENING PRAYER

Grant us, Lord, the grace to begin this time of Christian service with a holy fast,
that, as we struggle against the spirit of evil,
we may be strengthened by the practice of self-discipline.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

ALTERNATIVE OPENING PRAYER

Gracious and merciful God,
you look with love upon a sinful people
and desire only their return to you.

We beg of you the grace to live this holy season,
to persevere in prayer, fasting, and almsgiving.
By the discipline of Lent purify our hearts of all pretension,
bring us back to you,
and make the whole Church ready to celebrate the mysteries of Easter.

Grant this through Christ, our liberator from sin,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
holy and mighty God for ever and ever.

BLESSING AND GIVING OF ASHES

INVITATION TO PRAYER

After the homily, the priest, with hands joined, invites the people to pray, using the following invitation or similar words.

Dear friends,
let us implore God our Father
to bless and sanctify these ashes, which we place on our heads as a sign of repentance.

All pray briefly in silence.

BLESSING OF ASHES

The priest, with hands outstretched, blesses the ashes, using one of the following prayers.

Lord God,
you are moved by humility
and grant pardon to those who repent.
Listen to our prayers
and pour out + your blessing
on those who are marked by these ashes,
that, observing the season of Lent,
they may come with hearts made clean
to celebrate the paschal mystery of your Son.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Or: Lord,
you do not wish sinners to die
but to turn to you and live.
In your goodness hear our prayer:
bless + these ashes,
which we place on our heads to remind us
that we are dust and unto dust we shall return.
Grant that by our faithful observance of Lent
we may gain pardon for our sins and newness of life
in the image of your risen Son.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

He sprinkles the ashes with holy water in silence.

GIVING OF ASHES

After receiving the ashes himself, the priest then places ashes on those who come forward. He may be assisted by the deacon and other ministers.

During the giving of ashes, the choir and people may sing Psalm 51 with one of the antiphons from the Antiphonal, page 984, or another appropriate song.

As the ashes are given to each person, the priest or other minister says one of the following Scripture verses.

Repent, and be faithful to the gospel.

Or: Remember you are dust
and to dust you will return.

After the giving of ashes, the priest and other ministers wash their hands; the profession of faith is not said. The rite concludes with the general intercessions (prayer of the faithful) and the Mass continues in the usual way.

SOLEMNITY THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

The Ascension has always been a part of the joyful celebration of the fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost but was singled out for commemoration on the fortieth day (see Acts 1:3) toward the end of the fourth century. The feast develops the glory of the resurrection by acclaiming the exaltation of Christ as Lord of heaven and earth. It serves to prepare the Church, toward the end of the season of Easter, for the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

Where the solemnity of the Ascension is not observed as a holyday of obligation, it is assigned to the Seventh Sunday of Easter, which is then considered its proper day in the calendar.

OPENING
PRAYER

Almighty God,
make our hearts dance with joy and thanksgiving;
for in the ascension of Christ, your Son,
our human nature is raised above the heavens,
and where Christ, the Head, has gone before in glory
we, his Body, are called in hope.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

By the perpetual outpouring of your Spirit, confirm your Church
in its mission of salvation.

where he lives and reigns with you now and always through suffering into risen life and took him up to the glory of heaven.

and witnesses of Jesus Christ, the firstborn from the dead,
who lives and reigns with you now and always in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

ADDITIONAL PRAYERS

During the weekdays of Easter, one of the following prayers over the gifts or prayers after communion may be used instead of the prayer over the gifts or prayer after communion given in place for the weekday.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

- 1 Almighty God,
through Jesus Christ, firstborn from the dead,
you gather a holy people
to set these gifts before you.
Keep us one in thought and deed,
that we may be united in your praise.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

- 2 Living God,
the wheat and the vine which spring from the earth
tell of the One you brought from death to life.
Look upon these gifts of bread and wine and receive with them
the praise of a people
you have raised to new life.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

- 1 Loving God,
as the first witnesses of the resurrection
you chose the devoted women whose service of the Lord Jesus led them to the tomb.
By this communion in the risen Lord
keep us steadfast in service,
that we also may have the joy of being his witnesses.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

- 2 Almighty and merciful God,
you have called us forth from the waters of baptism
and sealed us with your Spirit,
that we may share Christ's holy banquet.
By this Easter sacrament
free us from all that is dead and sinful,
and perfect that newness of life
which you have begun within us.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 O God,
with wonder and gratitude
we have celebrated the mystery of Christ's victory over death.
May we who share his victory never fear death's sting,
but rather bear witness to his triumph, until all creation sings to you the undying hymn of praise
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

THURSDAY OR THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST
SUNDAY AFTER

THE HOLY TRINITY SOLEMNITY This feast, originally Corpus Christi, arose in thirteenth century Belgium in response to debates about the real presence and as a result of an upsurge in eucharistic piety. Its extension to the entire Western Church was first decreed by Urban IV in 1264. The feast celebrates the mystery of the nourishing and enduring presence of the body and blood of Christ in the eucharist.

Where the solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ is not observed as a holy day of obligation, it is assigned to the Sunday after Trinity Sunday, which is then considered its proper day in the calendar.

If a procession with the blessed sacrament is to follow the Mass, the directions in Holy Communion and Worship of the Eucharist outside Mass, nos. 101-108, are followed.

OPENING
PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ,
in this most wonderful sacrament
you have left us the memorial of your passion;
deepen our reverence for the mystery of your body and blood,
that we may experience within us the fruit of your redemption.

You live and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

ALTERNATIVE
OPENING PRAYER YEAR A

The bread you give, O God,
is Christ's flesh for the life of the world;
the cup of his blood
is your covenant for our salvation.

Grant that we who worship Christ in this holy mystery
may reverence him in the needy of this world
by lives poured out for the sake of that kingdom
where he lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

YEAR B God ever-faithful,
you have made a covenant with your people
in the gift of your Son, who offered his body for us
and poured out his blood for the many.

As we celebrate this eucharistic sacrifice,
build up your Church
by deepening within us the life of your covenant
and by opening our hearts to those in need.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

YEAR C You have blessed all generations,
O God most high,
in Jesus, our compassionate Saviour,
for through him you invite us to your kingdom,
welcome us to your table,
and provide us with nourishment in abundance.

Teach us to imitate your unfailing kindness
and to build up Christ's body, the Church,
by generously handing on to others
the gifts we have received from your bounty.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE

are the sacramental sign.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Lord Jesus Christ,
bring us one day
to that eternal union with your Godhead, which is prefigured here on earth
by our sharing in your sacred body and blood.

You live and reign for ever and ever.

FRIDAY FOLLOWING
SECOND SUNDAY
AFTER PENTECOST
SOLEMNITY

THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

This devotion, which dates back to the Middle Ages, flowered in France in the seventeenth century as a result of the visions of Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque (16 October). The feast was extended to the entire Western Church by Pius IX in 1856. It recalls the mystery of God, who is love, and honours the heart of Jesus as the source and centre of the incarnate love of God.

OPENING
PRAYER

Almighty God,
as we honour the heart of Jesus, your beloved Son,
we recall the blessings which his love showers upon us;
fill us with the gifts of grace
that flow so richly from his Sacred Heart.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

OR: God of mercy,
in the heart of your Son, wounded by our sins,
you lavish upon us the boundless treasures of your love;
grant that, in offering the homage of our faithful service,
we may also make fitting reparation for our sins.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

ALTERNATIVE
YEAR A

God of love,
you set your heart upon the least of nations,
and in the heart of Jesus
you reveal your love to the merest of children.

Make us simple enough to receive your great love,
and strong enough to bear it to others.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

YEAR B God of life and love,
from the pierced heart of your Son flowed water and blood, cleansing the world
and giving birth to your Church.

Renew within your people
the love poured out on us in baptism,
and through the blessing-cup we share
keep us always faithful to your life-giving covenant.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

YEAR C Eternal God,
in Christ you have sought us
with a shepherd's heart, and we have rejoiced
to be found and restored.

Multiply in all the world
the wonders of your saving grace, and gather your scattered people until heaven resounds in jubilation
at humanity made whole and creation restored.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Lord,
look upon the great love
which fills the heart of your beloved Son,
that the gifts we offer may be acceptable to you
and make atonement for our sins.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER: Preface of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, page 602.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Lord our God,
may this sacrament of charity
enkindle in our hearts the flame of your love,
so that, drawn to the person of Christ your Son,
we may learn to recognise him in our brothers and sisters.

Grant this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

WEEKDAYS IN ORDINARY TIME

The opening prayers, prayers over the gifts, and prayers after communion for use on the weekdays in Ordinary Time are taken from the propers for the Sundays in Ordinary Time and from the First and Thirty-fourth Weeks in Ordinary Time. These prayers are arranged in the following pages in two forms for pastoral use. Texts may be freely chosen from either section.

FOUR-WEEK CYCLE OF PRAYERS

On pages 186-209 the prayers are arranged in a four-week cycle of Mass texts for weekdays. This arrangement has the advantage of offering a selection of prayers from the Sundays in Ordinary Time to avoid the repetition of the texts from the preceding Sunday throughout the weekdays that follow.

GENERAL COLLECTION OF PRAYERS

This section contains the full collection of prayers for use in Ordinary Time. The collection is subdivided into opening prayers (pages 211-248), prayers over the gifts (pages 249-256), and prayers after communion (pages 257-263). This collection makes available the full range of prayers among which careful selection may be made for weekday celebrations. The pastoral use of the large collection of opening prayers is aided by their division into thirteen general themes or categories. Each prayer is accompanied by a brief thematic phrase intended to help further in the selection process.

you have fed us at the table of your word
and feasted us anew at the table of the eucharist.
As you give us food in such abundance,
make us attentive to the needs of others
and worthy of that heavenly banquet
you have prepared for your holy people.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

WEDNESDAY

OPENING PRAYER

O God,
protector of those who hope in you,
without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy,
enfold us in your gracious care and mercy,

and fix our hearts even now on those which last for ever.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

Or: O God,
from whose own abundance
all gifts and skills are lavishly bestowed,
encourage us to use our talents
as generously as you have allotted them,

who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

and teach us in Christ the greatness of humility and service.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

DISCIPLESHIP

17 Sharing God's call to be disciples

(2B)

From our earliest days, O God,
you call us by name.

Make our ears attentive to your voice,
our spirits eager to respond,
that, having heard you in Jesus your anointed one,
we may draw others to be his disciples.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

18 *For freedom
to answer God's call in Christ*

(3B)

Your sovereign rule, O God, draws near to us
in the person of Jesus your Son.
Your word summons us to faith,
your power transforms our lives.

Free us to follow in Christ's footsteps,
so that neither human loyalty
nor earthly attachment
may hold us back from answering your call.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

19 *The Church, called to be a household
of true disciples*

(10B)

God our Redeemer,
in Jesus, your promised Messiah,
you crushed the power of Satan.

Sustain your Church in the struggle against evil,
that, hearing your word and doing your will,
we may be fashioned into a household of true disciples who share in the victory of the cross.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

20 Following Christ to the cross and true life

(12C)

O God,
whose Son, our Messiah and Lord,
did not turn aside from the path of suffering
nor spare his disciples the prospect of rejection, pour out your Spirit upon this assembly,
that we may abandon the security of the easy way
and follow in Christ's footsteps toward the cross and true life.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

21 Becoming God's children of truth and light

Merciful God,
you willed that by the grace of adoption
we should become children of light;
grant that we not be cloaked in the darkness of error
but rather stand forth in the splendour of truth.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

22 For zeal and perseverance as heralds of the gospel

(14C)

Boundless, O God, is your saving power;
your harvest reaches to the ends of the earth.

Fill our hearts with zeal for your kingdom
and place on our lips the tidings of peace.
Grant us perseverance as heralds of the gospel and joy as disciples of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

23 The Spirit moves us to witness to God's love

(26B)

Pour out your Spirit, O God, over all the world to inspire every heart
with knowledge and love of you.
Grant that we who confess Jesus as Lord may shun whatever is contrary to this faith and give witness to your love
that has saved us in Christ,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

24 Finding the right path by the light of God's truth

(15)

O God,
you show the light of your truth to those who stray,
that they may return to the right path.
Grant that all who profess the Christian faith
may reject whatever is contrary to the gospel and follow the way that leads to you.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

25 Imitating God's healing compassion

(15C)

In Christ you draw near to us,
God of mercy and compassion,
lifting us out of death,
binding up our wounds,
and nursing our spirits back to health.

Let such a tenderness as yours compel us to go and do likewise.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

26 *For grace
to remain faithful to Christ*

(21B)

In every age, O God,
you give your people freedom to walk in faith
or to turn away.

Grant us grace
to remain faithful to your Holy One,
whose words are spirit and life,
Jesus Christ, our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

27 *For freedom
to answer the call of Christ*

(28B)

God of wisdom,
whose word probes the motives of our hearts,
with you all things are possible.

Let worldly treasure not keep us from Jesus,
who looks on us with love.
Free us to leave all things and follow him,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

28 For courage to bear witness to Christ

(12A)

True and faithful God,
you give courage to the fearful
and endurance to martyrs.

Sustain us as followers of your Son Jesus,
that with boldness and conviction
we may acknowledge him before the world.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

29 God gives new and indestructible life

(32C)

God of all the living,
in the resurrection of Christ Jesus
you have given us the life which even death cannot destroy.

Remember your unshakeable promise and strengthen us to live in this world
as your new creation.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

30 For delight in God's service

(33)

Gracious Lord and God,
grant that we may always take delight in your service,
for only through our faithfulness to you,
the author of every good,
will full and lasting happiness be ours.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

31 The courage to lose our lives for Christ

(24B)

Make us one, O God,
in acknowledging Jesus the Christ.
As we proclaim him by our words,
let us follow him in our works;
give us strength to take up the cross
and courage to lose our lives for his sake.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

32 For generous use of God-given talents

(33A)

O God,
from whose own abundance
all gifts and skills are lavishly bestowed,
encourage us to use our talents
as generously as you have allotted them,
so that, being faithful to your purpose,
we may become sharers in your glory.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

EUCCHARIST

33 God satisfies all human hungers

(17B)

O God,
you open wide your hand,
giving us food in due season.

Out of your never-failing abundance, satisfy the hungers of body and soul
and lead all peoples of the earth to the feast of the world to come.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

34 Sharing the gift of the food of life

(18A)

Bountiful and compassionate God,
you place in the hands of your disciples
the food of life.

Nourish us at your holy table,
that we may bear Christ to others and share with them
the gifts we have so richly received.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

35 *Work no longer
for food that perishes*

(18B)

Lord, giver of lasting life,
satisfy our hunger through Christ, the bread of life,
and quench our thirst with your gift of belief,
that we may no longer work for food that perishes,
but believe in the One whom you have sent.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

36 God invites all to heaven's feast

(28A)

God of goodness and kindness,
you invite all peoples to the banquet
and offer them a feast beyond compare.

Give us your saving grace
to keep unstained the robe of our baptism until that day when you welcome us to heaven's joyful table.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

37 *God sustains
a pilgrim people*

(19B)

God our Father and provider,
whose Son has given his flesh for the life of the world,
sustain your pilgrim Church on its journey
with the word of life and the bread of heaven.
Draw us nearer to him in whose name we gather,
that, following his way of sacrificial love,
we may come to the banquet of eternal life.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

38 Keep alert for the coming of God's kingdom

(19C)

O God,
on whom our faith rests secure
and whose kingdom we await,
sustain us by word and sacrament
and keep us alert for the coming of the Son of Man,
that we may welcome him without delay.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

39 Sharing the table of unity and hope

(20B)

Wise and gracious God,
you spread a table before us
and nourish your people with the word of life and the bread from heaven.

In our sharing of these holy gifts,
show us our unity in you
and give us a taste of the life to come.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

40 We are called to the banquet of the kingdom

(21C)

To the banquet of your kingdom,
O God of the nations,
you have invited people of every race and tongue.

May all who are called to a place at your table come by the narrow way to the unending feast of life.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

41 The Church, called to the wedding feast

(32A)

Brighten your Church, O God, with the promise of your kingdom
and waken our hearts to its light.
Bid us hasten with faith undimmed to greet the bridegroom's return
and to enter the wedding feast.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

42 God offers salvation and faith to all

(20A)

God of the nations,
to your table all are invited
and in your family no one is a stranger.

Satisfy the hunger
of those gathered in this house of prayer,
and mercifully extend to all the peoples on earth
the joy of salvation and faith.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

HEALING

43 Proclaiming God's power to heal and save

(4B)

Faithful God,
your Holy One, Jesus of Nazareth, spoke the truth with authority,
and you confirmed his teaching by wondrous deeds.

Through his healing presence,
drive far from us all that is unholy,
so that by word and deed
we may proclaim him Messiah and Lord and bear witness to your power to heal and save.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

44 God heals us in our brokenness

(5B)

Out of your power and compassion, O God,
you sent your Son into our afflicted world
to proclaim the day of salvation.

the gentle rain of your mercy.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

46 *In God's mercy
we learn to be rich
in mercy*

(24A)

O God most high,
you are slow to anger and rich in compassion.

Keep alive in us the memory of your mercy,

and our resentments dispelled.
May we discover the forgiveness promised to those who forgive
and become a people rich in mercy.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

obedience to God's gracious design*

(27B)

Creator God,
in Christ you call man and woman
to the fullness of glory
for which you created them in your image.

renew our obedience to your spoken will,
and conform our lives to your gracious design.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

48 In faith we are healed and give thanks

(28C)

God for ever and ever.

49 *God heals us
of division and prejudice*

(6B)

We come before you, O God,
confident in Christ's victory over sickness and death.

Heal us again
from sin, which divides us,
and from prejudice, which isolates us.
Bring us to wholeness of life
through the pardon you grant your people.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

JUSTICE / PEACE

50 For knowledge and strength to do what is right

(1)

Attend with kindness, Lord God,
to the cries of your people,
that we may see the things that ought to be done
and grow in the strength to do them.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

51 God's providence guides our days in peace

Almighty God,

so that we may hunger and thirst for holiness,
work tirelessly for peace,
and be counted among those who seek first the blessedness of your kingdom.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

54 For love of enemies

Heavenly Father,
in Christ Jesus
you challenge us to renounce violence and to forsake revenge.

Teach us to recognise as your children even our enemies and persecutors
and to love them without measure or discrimination.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

55 God rewards those who keep to the path of justice

(22C)

God and judge of all,
you show us that the way to your kingdom
is through humility and service.

Keep us true to the path of justice and give us the reward promised to those who make a place for the rejected and the poor.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

56 Keeping the two great commandments

Lord our God,
upon the two commandments
to love you and to love our neighbour
you have founded all your holy law.
Give us the grace to keep these commandments
and so inherit eternal life.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

children of the light who continue your work in this world with untiring concern for integrity and justice.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

58 Working for the growth of the kingdom

who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

59 God answers our constant prayer

Lord, tireless guardian of your people,
always ready to hear the cries of your chosen ones,
teach us to rely, day and night, on your care.

(29C)

Impel us to seek your enduring justice and your ever-present help.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

60 Reflecting God's love and mercy

(30A)

Your love, O God, is boundless.

that we may love you with our whole heart
and love our neighbour as ourselves.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

61 For the gift of humility

(30C)

O God,
who alone can probe the depths of the heart,
you hear the prayer of the humble
and justify the repentant sinner.

KINGDOM

63 *For a foretaste
of the new wine
of the age to come*

(2C)

God of wonders,
at Cana in Galilee
you revealed your glory in Jesus Christ and summoned all humanity
to life in him.

Show to your people gathered on this day
your transforming power and give us a foretaste of the wine you keep for the age to come.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

64 For eagerness to embrace the gospel

kingdom*

(6C)

of those who place their trust in you.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

66 *God's tender care
overcomes anxiety*

(8A)

your care for us surpasses
even a mother's tender love.

Through this word and sacrament
renew our trust in your provident care, that we may abandon all anxiety
and seek first your kingdom.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

67 *God renews
the covenant of love*

(8B)

God of tenderness,
desire of the human heart,
you led your people into the desert
and made them your own in love and fidelity.

By this word and sacrament
renew with us your covenant of love,
so that, forsaking the ways of the past,
we may embrace the new life of the kingdom.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

68 *Praise and charity, pledge of the kingdom
to come*

(9B)

Holy God,
you sanctified this day
as a time for rest and worship.

As its blessed hours unfold,

of the eternal kingdom yet to come.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

69 *Announce the

who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

70 Trusting in God's hidden ways

(11B)

at whose bidding the seed will sprout
and the shoot grow toward full stature,
hear the prayer of your assembled people.

Make us trust in your hidden ways,
that we may pray with confidence
and wait for your kingdom now growing in our midst.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

71 For fidelity to God's call

(13C)

Sovereign God, ruler of our hearts,
you call us to obedience
and sustain us in freedom.

Keep us true to the way of your Son,
that we may leave behind all that hinders us
and, with eyes fixed on him,
walk surely in the path of the kingdom,
where he lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

72 Treasure God's kingdom

(17A)

God of eternal wisdom,
you alone impart the gift of right judgement.

who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

73 True joy is found in God's commands and promises

may love what you command
and desire what you promise,
so that, amid the uncertain things of this world,
our hearts may be fixed where true joys are found.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

74 For steadiness as we await Christ's return

(33B)

Your creation, O God, runs its appointed course,
as from the ends of the earth
you gather a people you call your own.

Confirm us in the strength of your abiding word.
Steady our hearts in the time of trial,
so that on the day of the Son of Man
we may without fear rejoice to behold his appearing.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

75 For patience and longing for the kingdom

(33C)

Lord God of all the ages,
the One who is, who was, and who is to come,
stir up within us a longing for your kingdom,

and grant us patient endurance
until the sun of justice dawns.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

76 *For a place
in God's kingdom*

(29B)

Most glorious God,
in Jesus you show us
that your will is to save.

Grant to us your people
the boldness to desire a place in your kingdom,
the courage to drink the cup of suffering,
and the grace to find in service
the glory you promise.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAISE

77 *God raises
the Church to new life*

(10C)

O God,
our very breath, our only hope,
in every age you take pity on us
and bring forth life from death.

Visit your people
and raise your Church to new life,
that we may join with all generations
in voicing our wonder and praise.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

78 God's truth and love blossom in the worship we offer

(22B)

Father of light,
giver of every good and perfect gift,
bring to fruition the word of truth
sown in our hearts by your Son,
that we may rightly understand your commandments,
live your law of love,
and so offer you worship that is pure and undefiled.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

79 God's mercy seeks us out

(24C)

Undaunted you seek the lost, O God, exultant you bring home the found.

Touch our hearts with grateful wonder
at the tenderness of your forbearing love.
Grant us delight in the mercy that has found us
and bring all to rejoice at the feast of forgiveness.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

80 For joy in God's service

(31)

Almighty and merciful God,
from whom every blessing flows,
only by your gift
do your people offer you fitting service and praise;
grant, we beseech you,
that we may hasten without stumbling toward the joys that you promise.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

RECONCILIATION

81 The Church, called to witness to God's reconciling purpose

(2A)

Merciful God,
you sent your Son, the spotless Lamb,
to take upon himself the sin of the world.

Make our lives holy,
that your Church may bear witness to your purpose
of reconciling all things in Christ,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

82 Sharing in God's compassion

(7C)

Compassionate God and Father,
you are kind to the ungrateful,
merciful even to the wicked.

Pour out your love upon us,
that with good and generous hearts
we may keep from judging others
and learn your way of compassion.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

83 God's pardon is reflected in our forgiveness

(11C)

Compassionate God,
you gather your people in prayer
and lavish your gifts upon us anew.

Sinners that we are,
you have forgiven us much.
Grant that our experience of your pardon
may increase our love
until it reflects your own immeasurable forgiveness.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

84 God's power is shown in mercy

(26)

God of heaven and earth,
your almighty power is shown above all
in your willingness to forgive and show mercy;
let your grace descend upon us without ceasing,
that we may strive for the things you have promised
and come to share the treasures of heaven.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

85 *Following the way
of repentance and faith*

(26A)

O God,
you alone judge rightly
and search the depths of the heart.

Make us swift to do your will
and slow to judge our neighbour, that we may walk with those who follow the way of repentance and faith
and so enter your heavenly kingdom.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

86 For heartfelt observance of God's law

(6A)

All-seeing God,
you alone judge rightly our inmost thoughts.

Teach us to observe your law from the heart
even as we keep it outwardly.
Purify our desires,
calm every anger,
and reconcile us to one another.
Then will our worship at your altar render you perfect praise.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

and our lives be judged worthy of you.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

89 For God's saving gift of faith

(9C)

God of the nations,
whose will it is that all be saved

and find healing in his word.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

90 *For humility
of heart*

(14A)

Father, Lord of heaven and earth, by whose gracious will
the mysteries of the kingdom are revealed to the childlike,
make us learn from your Son humility of heart,
that in shouldering his yoke
we may find refreshment and rest.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

91 Seeing and welcoming Christ

(14B)

God of the prophets,
in every age you send the word of truth,
familiar yet new,
a sign of contradiction.

Let us not be counted among those who lack faith,
but give us the vision
to see Christ in our midst
and to welcome your saving word.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

92 Living by God's gifts of grace

Show favour to your servants, O Lord,
and shower upon us the gifts of your grace,
that, eager in faith, in hope, and in love,
we may always be watchful in keeping your commandments.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

93 For the enduring gifts of God

(17)

O God,
protector of those who hope in you,
without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy,
enfold us in your gracious care and mercy,
that with you as our ruler and guide,
we may use wisely the gifts of this passing world
and fix our hearts even now on those which last for ever.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

94 *For true freedom
as God's adopted children*

God for ever and ever.

95 *Serving God
with undivided hearts*

grant that we may serve you with undivided hearts
and so experience the power of your mercy.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

96 Welcoming God's mercy toward others

(25A)

God most high,
your ways are not our ways,
for your kindness is lavished equally upon all.

Teach us to welcome your mercy toward others, even as we hope to receive mercy ourselves.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

97 *God's mercy
is abundant*

Almighty and eternal God,
whose bounty is greater than we deserve or desire,
pour out upon us your abundant mercy;
forgive the things that weigh upon our consciences
and enrich us with blessings
for which our prayers dare not hope.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

98 For deeper and more manifest faith

and let its power be seen in your servants.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

99 For loyalty to God above all else

(29A)

O God,
whose image we bear
and whose name we carry,
yours is the world and all it contains.

Recall us to our true allegiance,
so that above the powers and rulers of this world
you alone may claim our fullest loyalty and love.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

God for ever and ever.

101 For grace to hear and heed God's great commandment

Lord our God,
you are the one God and there is no other.

Give us grace to hear and heed
the great commandment of your kingdom,
that we may love you with all our heart
and love our neighbour as ourselves.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

102 Trust God and hold back nothing

(32B)

God, our provider,
you are the orphan's hope
and the widow's bread.

Strengthen our faith,
that with simplicity of heart
we may come to trust in you alone and hold back nothing in serving you.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

103 Cooperating in the work of grace

Stir up the hearts of your faithful people, Lord God, that they may cooperate more readily in the work of grace

the saving power of your goodness.

who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

104 For the grace and resolve to practice good works

to pursue the practice of good works.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

by binding us more closely to you,
and in your watchful care
tend the good fruit you have nurtured.

who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

WISDOM

grant that by your inspiration
we may discern those things that are right
and, by your merciful guidance, do them.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

109 God's wisdom and ways are made known in Jesus

(21A)

to reveal your wisdom
and make known your ways.

that we may confess Jesus as your Son,
take up his work on earth,
and trust his promise to sustain the Church.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

that we may find in your servant Jesus
the pattern of true discipleship
and the grace to persevere in following him,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

your life-giving grace
may always delight in your blessings.

We make our prayer in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

- 4 Nourished with the sacrament of our redemption,
we ask you, Lord, that by its saving power
true faith may always grow and prosper.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

- 5 Merciful God,
you have invited us to share
in the one bread and the one cup.
Enable us to live as one in Christ
and to labour gladly for the salvation of all.

Grant this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

6 Having feasted with delight at your heavenly table,
we beg you, Lord,
that we may always hunger for that food
by which we truly live.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

7 All-powerful God,
grant that we may come to the fullness of salvation,
which is pledged to us through this eucharistic mystery.

We make our prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord.

8 Merciful Lord,
we have feasted at your banquet of salvation.
Through this sacrament,
which nourishes our lives on earth,
make us sharers in eternal life.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

9 Lord God,
you nourish us with the body and blood of your Son.
Rule our lives by your Holy Spirit,
that we may commit ourselves to you not only in word
but in action and in truth,
and so enter the kingdom of heaven.

We make our prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Grant in your mercy, Lord,
that your healing power in the eucharist
may rid us of waywardness and sin
and lead us to all that is right and good.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

11 Lord,
as the communion we have received prefigures the union of all the faithful in you,
so may its power
bring unity and peace to your Church.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

- 12 Lord,
we are nourished and made whole
by the sacred body and blood of your Son.
Grant in your kindness
that the mystery we devoutly celebrate may bring us to the fullness of redemption.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
- 13 Give us new life, Lord God,
through the divine gift we have offered and received,
so that, bound to you in unfailing love,
we may bring forth fruit that remains.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
- 14 In this eucharist, Lord,
you have filled us with every blessing.
Grant that we may hold fast to your saving gifts
and never cease to sing your praise.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
- 15 Nourished by these holy gifts,
we pray to you, Lord,
that each time we celebrate this mystery
your work of salvation may grow within us.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
- 16 Lord,
remain close to the people
you have enriched with these heavenly mysteries, and grant that we may pass from our former ways
to new life in the risen Christ.

We make our prayer in the name of Jesus, the Lord.
- 17 We have shared, Lord, in the sacrament
which is the lasting memorial of your Son's passion.
Grant, we pray,
that this gift of his surpassing love
may bring us closer to our salvation.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

18 Lord,
surround with your constant protection
the people you renew by this eucharist,
and in your never-failing care for us
make us worthy of eternal redemption.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

19 Merciful God,
let our sharing in this sacrament deliver us from evil
and make us stand firm in the light of your truth.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

20 God of mercy,
through this holy eucharist
you make us one body in Christ.
Fashion us in his likeness here on earth,
that we may be ready to share his company in heaven,
where he lives and reigns for ever and ever.

21 Complete within us, Lord,
the healing work of your mercy,
and by your grace transform and strengthen us,
that we may please you in all that we do.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

22 God of blessings,
we have been fed at this table
with the bread of heaven.
Give us this food always,
that it may strengthen your love in our hearts
and inspire us to serve you in our brothers and sisters.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

23 Lord,
at the table of your word and sacrament
you nourish your faithful and give them life.
Grant that through these gifts of your Son
we may advance in holiness
and be worthy to share his life for ever.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

24 Almighty God,
let the power of this sacrament
take hold of us, body and soul, that our lives may be ruled not by our own will
but by the working of your grace within us.

We make our prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord.

25 Lord,
support with your unfailing help
those you nourish with this sacrament,
that we may feel the power of your redemption
in the celebration of the eucharist and in the conduct of our lives.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

26 Gracious God,
let this holy mystery restore us in mind and body,
that we who proclaim the death of Christ and are joined to his suffering
may become co-heirs with him in glory,
who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

27 Almighty God,
may the bread we have broken
and the cup we have tasted fill us with life and gladness
and transform us into the Christ we have received,
for he lives and reigns for ever and ever.

28 God of majesty,
receive our humble prayer:
just as you nourish us
with the most holy body and blood of your Son,
so let us partake of his divine nature,
for he lives and reigns for ever and ever.

29 Foster your life within us, Lord,
by the celebration of the heavenly mysteries:
bless us with your help from day to day
and so prepare our hearts for the world to come.

We make our prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord.

30 Lord,
may your mysteries accomplish within us
the salvation they embody,
that we may come to possess in truth
what we celebrate now under sacramental signs.

Grant this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

31 Lord,
increase within us the work of your saving power,
that our lives may be renewed by these holy mysteries and your grace may prepare us for the blessings they promise.

We make our prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord.

32 Strengthened by this holy food, O Lord,
we give you thanks and seek your mercy,
that, through the outpouring of your Spirit,
those who have been touched by the power of this sacrament may continue to live in sincerity and truth.

We make our prayer in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

33 Having shared in the gift of these sacred mysteries,
we humbly pray, Lord God,
that what your Son commanded us to do in remembrance of himself
may strengthen among us the bonds of love.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

34 All-powerful God,
by giving us a share in these divine mysteries
you have gladdened our hearts.
Stay with us now
and let us never be separated from you.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

35 Gracious God,
in this holy banquet,
prepared for us in the sacrifice of your Son,
you have poured out the riches of your divine life.
Help us to pour out our lives in service,
that others may be brought to the table of your kingdom.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

36 God of love,
you have fed us at the table of your word
and feasted us anew at the table of the eucharist.
As you give us food in such abundance,
make us attentive to the needs of others
and worthy of that heavenly banquet
you have prepared for your holy people.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

37 Lord God,
let the power of this sacrament
raise us up from our weakness
and fashion us into a new humanity, restored for ever to your image.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

38 O God,
eternal beauty, wisdom everlasting,
today we have tasted
the joys of heaven's unending feast.
We beg you now,
extend the grace of this celebration,
that heaven's joys may be known and shared
in what we do on earth.

Grant this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

39 God our Creator,
you made us in your image,
that we might know you in faith
and serve you in love.
By this eucharist,
bring your people to serve with generous hearts
the needs of the human family.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE PROPER OF SAINTS

*To know with all the saints
the breadth and length and height and depth of the love of Christ*

SEE EPHESIANS 3:18-19

THE PROPER OF SAINTS

1 The rank of the celebrations (solemnity, feast, or memorial) is indicated for each day. If there is no indication, it is an optional memorial.

2 For each solemnity and feast a proper Mass is provided in its entirety. This is therefore used as given.

3 For memorials:

1. Proper texts, given on some days, should always be used.

2. When there is a reference to a particular common, appropriate texts should be chosen according to the principles listed at the beginning of the commons. The page reference in each case indicates only the beginning of the common to which reference is made.

3. If the reference is to more than one common, one or the other may be used, according to pastoral need. For example, if a saint is both a martyr and a bishop, either the common of martyrs or the common of pastors (popes and other bishops) may be used.

In this edition, corresponding prayers from the same common have been grouped together to facilitate choosing the most appropriate text.

4. In addition to the commons which express a special characteristic holiness (for example, of martyrs or pastors), the texts from the common of other saints, referring to holiness in general, may always be used.

For example, in the case of a saint who is both a virgin and a martyr, texts from the common of other holy men and women may be used, in addition to texts from the common of martyrs or the common of other saints, virgins.

5. The prayers over the gifts and after communion, unless there are proper prayers, may be taken either from the common or from the current liturgical season.

4 The Masses in the proper may also be celebrated as Votive Masses, with the exception of Masses of the mysteries of the life of the Lord and of the blessed Virgin Mary and Masses of certain saints for whom a special Votive Mass is provided. When Masses from the proper are used as Votive Masses, words in the prayers referring to the day of death or to the solemnity or feast are omitted and memorial or commemoration is substituted. If the opening antiphon, Rejoice in the Lord today, occurs, it is to be replaced by another antiphon from the respective common.

Gregory, born at Nazianzus (Turkey) in 329, died there in 389. He also was a hermit before becoming bishop of Constantinople, and was known as the “Theologian” because of his wisdom and acumen in maintaining orthodox doctrine against the Arians.

17 JANUARY ANTHONY, ABBOT

Born in 251 in upper Egypt, Anthony died in 356. He gave away his possessions and sought the austere life and solitude of the desert at an early age. He attracted disciples who formed communities of hermits. The account of his life by Saint Athanasius (2 May) was extremely influential in the development and spread of monasticism. Yet Anthony remained involved in the theological controversies of his day, defending the divinity of Christ. He is venerated as the father of monasticism.

God for ever and ever.

the snares of the enemy.

As a presbyter and as bishop of Geneva, he played a major part in the renewal of French Catholicism in the seventeenth century and is seen by many as an early proponent of ecumenical dialogue. With Saint Jane Frances de Chantal (12 December) he founded the Visitation order, and his writings promoted a spirituality for laypeople. FEAST

This date, first linked with the conversion of Saint Paul in the so-called Martyrdom of Jerome (c. 431), became established in the liturgy of Gaul. It celebrates the work of God's grace at a major turning point in the life of Paul himself and in the history of the infant Church.

Born in Desenzano (Italy) about 1474, Angela died in Brescia on this day in 1540. She became a Franciscan tertiary and subsequently founded the Company of Saint Ursula (Ursulines). Her vision provided an alternative to the forms of religious life then available for women: members remained in their own homes, living as virgins and observing a rule she composed. Educated at Monte Cassino, Naples, Paris, and Cologne, he is regarded as one of the greatest theologians in the history of the Church. Even though Aquinas's writings faced ecclesiastical opposition in his time, the substance of his life's work has endured as an authentic exposition of Christian teaching and carries unique official approval. He is remembered for his modesty, the prayerfulness of his personal life, and the abiding influence of his thought.

2 FEBRUARY THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

FEAST

This feast originated in Jerusalem before the fifth century and was adopted at Rome during the seventh century. It is celebrated forty days after Christmas to commemorate the prescribed Mosaic ritual following the birth of a child. The feast recalls the encounter of Jesus with Simeon and Anna in the temple—the Lord meets his people. It celebrates Christ as “the light to enlighten all nations,” and so candles are blessed during the introductory rites and carried in the entrance procession.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

The introductory rites are celebrated in a chapel or some other suitable place where the faithful can easily take part, either outside the church where Mass will be celebrated or in the church itself. The priest and deacon, wearing white Mass vestments, and the ministers go to the place where the people, holding unlighted candles, have assembled. The priest may wear a cope instead of a chasuble; in this case he removes the cope and puts on the chasuble after the procession.

OPENING SONG AND LIGHTING OF CANDLES: While the candles are being lighted, the antiphon Look, our Lord shall come with power from the Antiphonal, page 1224, or another suitable song is sung.

GREETING

After making the sign of the cross, the priest greets the people, using the following greeting or one of the greetings from the Order of Mass.

The Lord be with you.

The people answer:

And also with you.

INTRODUCTION

The priest or deacon gives a brief introduction, inviting the faithful to participate fully in the celebration. He may use the following or similar words.

Dear friends,
forty days have passed since we celebrated the joyful feast of the birth of the Lord.
Today we recall the holy day
when Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple.
They were presenting him in accordance with the law,
while he was fulfilling the prophecy that the Lord would come to his temple
and visit those who believed in him.

Led by the Spirit, Simeon and Anna came to the temple, recognised Christ as their Lord,
and proclaimed him with joy.
Called together by that same Holy Spirit,
let us now go to the house of God
to welcome Christ the Lord.
There we shall recognise him in the breaking of the bread until he comes again in glory.

After Let us pray and the pause for silent prayer, the priest, with hands outstretched, blesses the candles, using one of the following prayers.

OF THE CANDLES

Lord God,
unquenchable source of light,
on this day you revealed to the just man Simeon
the light to enlighten all nations.
Bless + these candles and make them holy.
Accept the prayers of your people,
who will carry them in praise of your name,
that they may walk in the path of goodness
until they reach that light which never fails.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Or: Almighty God,
true light of the world
and source of light eternal,
shine upon the hearts of the faithful,
that all in this holy temple
who are brightened by the glow of these candles
may advance with joy toward the light of your glory.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The priest sprinkles the candles with holy water in silence. He then takes the candle prepared for him.

PROCESSION

Before the procession begins, the deacon or the priest may invite the people to process, using the following invitation or similar words.

Let us go forth in peace to meet the Lord.

The procession then begins. If incense is used, the thurifer goes first carrying a censer with burning incense, followed by the crossbearer between two ministers holding lighted candles, then the deacon carrying the Book of Gospels, the ministers, the priest, and finally the congregation carrying lighted candles.

During the procession, the antiphon A light to shine upon the nations with the Cantic of Simeon from the Antiphonal, page 1224, or the Gloria, or another suitable song is sung.

When the priest comes to the altar, he venerates it and may also incense it. Then he goes to the chair (and removes the cope and puts on the chasuble). The opening prayer is sung or said and the Mass continues in the usual way.

OPENING
PRAYER

God of power and majesty,
your only-begotten Son,
having taken upon himself our flesh and blood,
was presented this day in the temple;
bring us also into your presence
with hearts that are cleansed and purified.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

ALTERNATIVE
OPENING
PRAYER

Inspired by your Spirit, Lord,
we gather in your temple to welcome your Son.

Enlighten our minds
and lay bare our inmost thoughts.
Purify your people, and make us obedient to the demands of your law,
so that we may mature in wisdom
and grow to full stature in your grace.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Lord,
be pleased with the gift
offered to you this day by a joyful Church, for in obedience to your will your only Son offered himself
as a spotless lamb for the life of the world.

Grant this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER: Preface of the Presentation of the Lord, page 588.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Through this holy banquet, O God,
make your grace perfect in us,
and as you satisfied the longing of Simeon that he would not see death
before he had welcomed the Messiah,
grant that we, going forth to meet the Lord,
may also embrace the gift of eternal life.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 FEBRUARY BLASE, BISHOP, MARTYR

Blase, a bishop in Armenia, is believed to have been martyred in the early fourth century during the persecution of the emperor Licinius. Known as a healer, he has been venerated since the eighth century and is specially invoked to intercede for protection against diseases of the throat.

Common of Martyrs: one martyr, page 445; or Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a bishop), page 450.

OPENING
PRAYER

Lord,

FEAST

Mark died about the year 74. He is usually identified with the John Mark whose mother's house in Jerusalem was a meeting place for the apostles, and with the young man who followed Christ after his arrest (Mark 14:51). A cousin of Saint Barnabas (11 June), Mark accompanied Saint Paul (29 June) on his first missionary journey and later followed him to Rome. A companion of Saint Peter (29 June), he is traditionally credited with the gospel which reflects Peter's teaching and memoirs. Mark is honoured as the founder of the Church in Alexandria.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
you bestowed on Saint Mark the evangelist
the sublime grace of preaching the gospel;
let his teaching so transform our lives
that we may walk faithfully in the footsteps of Christ.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

in the transfiguration of your only-begotten Son

who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

Year B Upon a high mountain,
O God of majestic glory,
you revealed Jesus
in the mystery of his transfiguration
as your Son, the Beloved,
to whom we must listen.

By the word of his gospel,
shining for ever as a light in the darkness,
give us hope in the midst of suffering and faith to perceive, even in the passion and cross,
the glory of the risen Christ,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

Year C God and Father of Jesus,
you transfigured your Chosen One and in heavenly light revealed him as your Son.

Open our ears to the living Word

He has been regarded as the author of the Apostolic Tradition, whose eucharistic prayer forms the basis of Eucharistic Prayer II in the Roman Missal. Exiled along with Pontian, he was reconciled to the Church. Both died of mistreatment and were brought back to Rome for burial on this day, some time in the fourth century.

we humbly pray
that we who revere the memory of the blessed Virgin Mary may share with her in the eternal banquet.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

23 AUGUST ROSE OF LIMA, VIRGIN

Born at Lima (Peru) in 1586, Rose died there on 24 August 1617. Having chosen not to marry, she joined the Dominican Third Order and modelled herself on Saint Catherine of Siena (29 April). A recluse and mystic, Rose is remembered for her radiant love of God and for the severe penance and hardships she endured during serious illness. She was the first saint of the Americas to be canonised (1671).

and be filled in heaven with the torrent of your delights.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

24 AUGUST BARTHOLOMEW, APOSTLE
FEAST

Bartholomew is named in the list of apostles and is generally identified with Nathaniel of Cana, the “Israelite without guile” (John 1:47), who was led to Jesus by the apostle Philip (3 May). He is said to have preached the gospel in India and in Armenia, where tradition indicates he was martyred.

25 AUGUST LOUIS OF FRANCE, MARRIED MAN, RULER

Born at Poissy (France) in 1214, Louis died near Tunis (Tunisia) on this day in 1270. As Louis IX, he was a devoted husband and the father of eleven children, whom he helped to raise in the Christian faith. He was regarded as a model Christian king at a time of great cultural achievement, but he led two disastrous crusades, on the second of which he died of typhoid. He is remembered for his impartial justice, for his care of the poor and the sick, and for honouring his word.

Common of Other Saints: other holy men and women, page 470.

OPENING PRAYER

O God,
you brought Saint Louis from the cares of earthly rule
to the glory of your kingdom in heaven.
Hear his prayers for us,
and grant that in fulfilling the tasks of our life on earth
we may seek your eternal kingdom.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

25 AUGUST JOSEPH CALASANZ, PRESBYTER, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

EDUCATOR

Born in Aragon (Spain) in 1557, Joseph died at Rome on this day in 1648. A lawyer, theologian, and presbyter, he gave away much of his family fortune and devoted himself to providing free education for poor children in Rome. He founded the Clerks Regular of the Christian Schools (Piarists) and suffered many trials in later life at the hands of jealous colleagues and Church authorities. He is remembered especially for his patience in the midst of suffering.

Common of Pastors: other pastors, page 454; or Common of Other Saints: religious, page 468, or educators, page 467.

OPENING PRAYER

O God,
you endowed the holy priest Joseph with such great love and patience that he dedicated his life to teaching children and forming them in virtue.
Grant that we who honour him as a wise teacher may always follow his example of faithful service to the truth.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

27 AUGUST MONICA, MARRIED WOMAN
MEMORIAL

Monica was probably born at Tagaste (Algeria) about 331 and died at Ostia (Italy) in 387. Before her marriage her faith bore fruit in her recovery from a drinking problem and later helped bring her husband and mother-in-law to Christianity. Following many years of penance and prayer for her brilliant but wayward son Saint Augustine (28 August), Monica lived to see his conversion. Following his baptism in Milan, she died at the beginning of her journey home to Africa. She is remembered for her parental devotion, her patience, and her persistence in prayer.

Common of Other Saints: other holy men and women (for holy women), page 470.

OPENING
PRAYER

Merciful God, comforter of all who grieve,
you accepted Saint Monica's tears
for the conversion of Augustine, her son;
through their intercession
grant that we may weep for our sins
and receive the grace of your forgiveness.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

28 AUGUST AUGUSTINE, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
MEMORIAL

Born at Tagaste (Algeria) in 354, Augustine died at Hippo (Tunisia) in 430. Though enrolled by his mother Monica as a catechumen, he renounced the Christian faith and espoused Manicheism. He taught in Carthage, Rome, and Milan. He lived for fifteen years with a woman who remains unknown and with whom he had a son, named Adeodatus. After a long inner struggle and under the influence of Saint Ambrose (7 December) and the prayers of his mother, Saint Monica (27 August), Augustine was converted and baptised in 387 together with his son. For thirty-four years he was bishop of Hippo, living a communal life with his clergy and serving the many needs of his people at a time of political and cultural collapse. He is remembered as a model pastor and as a preacher and writer whose thought has had an enduring influence in Christian history.

OPENING
PRAYER

Renew, O Lord, in your Church
the spirit you poured out upon the holy bishop Augustine,
so that, filled with the same spirit,
we may thirst for you,
the only source of true wisdom,
and search for you,
the author of eternal love.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

may become for us the sign of unity
and the bond of charity.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Sanctify us, O God,
by our sharing at the table of the Lord,
so that, made members of his body,
we may become what we have received.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

29 AUGUST THE MARTYRDOM OF JOHN THE BAPTIST
MEMORIAL

The execution of John the Baptist is recorded in the gospels (Matthew 14; Mark 6) and is placed by the historian Josephus at the fortress of Machaerus near the Dead Sea. As early as the fifth century, a commemoration of John the Baptist was kept on this day at Jerusalem. It probably marks the anniversary of the dedication of the basilica in his honour at Sebaste (Palestine) where, according to tradition, he was buried.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
you chose Saint John the Baptist to be the forerunner of your Son
both in birth and in death.
Grant that,
as John laid down his life for truth and justice,
we too may strive with courage
to bear witness to your word.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Lord,
through these gifts we offer
keep us faithful to the path of righteousness which the Baptist proclaimed in the wilderness and to which he bore heroic witness
by the shedding of his blood.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER: Preface of John the Baptist, page 604.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Lord,
as we honour the birth into eternal life

which we have received
and rejoice in its powerful effects.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

SEPTEMBER

1 SEPTEMBER MEMORIAL GREGORY THE GREAT, POPE, RELIGIOUS, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Born about 540, Gregory died in Rome in 604. While prefect of Rome, he founded monasteries there and in Sicily and himself became a monk. Called to be a deacon of Rome by Benedict I, he was then sent as papal legate to Constantinople. Elected pope in 590, he reorganised Church life and administration in a time of crisis, sponsored liturgical reform, and initiated the evangelisation of the English. He is remembered also for his extensive writings on pastoral care, spirituality, and morals, and for his self-designation as “servant of the servants of God.”

Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a pope), page 450; or Common of Doctors of the Church, page 461.

OPENING PRAYER

O God,
you guide your people with kindness,
you govern them with love.
Through the intercession of Pope Gregory the Great grant to those who lead your flock the spirit of wisdom, so that the growth of your Church in holiness
may bring eternal joy to its shepherds.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Lord,
by this sacrifice you have taken away the sins of the world.
As we offer it on the feast of Saint Gregory,
may it bring us closer to our salvation.

We make our prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Lord God,
you nourish us with Christ the living bread;
let Christ also be our teacher,
that on this feast of blessed Gregory
we may firmly grasp your truth and express it in works of charity.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

8 SEPTEMBER THE BIRTH OF THE VIRGIN MARY

FEAST

This feast originated in Jerusalem about the sixth century, a development of the feast of the dedication of the church of Saint Anne, built in Jerusalem “where Mary was born.” Observed in Rome in the seventh century, it was later used to determine the date of Mary’s Immaculate Conception. Because of her importance in salvation history, Mary’s birthday is celebrated as well as those of her Son, the Lord, and of Saint John the Baptist (24 June).

OPENING
PRAYER

Bestow on your servants, Lord,
this gift of grace,
that we whose salvation took its beginning in the birth of your Son from the Virgin Mary may find in this celebration of her nativity
an increase in the gift of your peace.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Lord,
let the humanity of your only-begotten Son
come to our aid.
As the birth of Christ from the Virgin Mother
did not diminish but rather consecrated her virginity,
so may he take away our sins
and make our offering acceptable to you.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER: Preface of the Blessed Virgin Mary I or II, pages 624-626.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Lord God,
you have refreshed your Church
with these sacred mysteries.
Let it now rejoice at the birth of the blessed Virgin Mary,
which was for all creation a sign of hope
and the daybreak of salvation.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

9 SEPTEMBER PETER CLAVER, PRESBYTER, RELIGIOUS

Born at Verdú (Spain) in 1580, Peter died in Cartagena (Colombia) on 8 September 1654. After entering the Society of Jesus he felt called to mission work in the New World and was sent to Colombia in 1610. He was ordained a presbyter in 1616 in Cartagena, a major port of entry for slaves brought from Africa. For the next thirty-four years, in the face of opposition from slave owners, he met the slave ships with a band of helpers and interpreters and ministered to the physical and spiritual needs of the slaves, catechising and baptising thousands. He died after suffering four years of debilitating illness. Peter called himself “the slave of the slaves” and is remembered for his total devotion to their needs and dignity.

Common of Pastors: other pastors, page 454; or Common of Other Saints: those who carried out works of mercy, page 466.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
you made Saint Peter Claver a slave of the slaves and strengthened him with marvellous and patient love in their service.
Grant through his intercession
that we may seek the things that are of Christ,
and love our neighbour both in deed and in truth.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

13 SEPTEMBER JOHN CHRYSOSTOM, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
MEMORIAL

John was born in Antioch about 347 and died in exile in Comana (Turkey) on 14 September 407. After some years as a hermit, he was a presbyter at Antioch, where his brilliant preaching and catechesis earned him the sobriquet "Chrysostom" (golden-mouthed). He was appointed patriarch of Constantinople in 397. His reforms, preaching, and ascetic life led to opposition from court and clergy and eventual banishment. He is remembered for his simplicity of life, his care of the poor, the courage of his witness, and his effective preaching of the Scriptures.

Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a bishop), page 450; or Common of Doctors of the Church, page 461.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
the strength of all who hope in you,
you gave the holy bishop John Chrysostom a golden tongue to preach your word
and a will of iron to withstand persecution.
Open our minds to his teaching and strengthen our hearts by his example of resolute endurance.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

We make our prayer in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

God of mercy,
grant that the sacrament we have received on this feast of Saint John Chrysostom may make us strong in your love and faithful in our witness to your truth.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

14 SEPTEMBER THE HOLY CROSS

FEAST

Originally this day commemorated the dedication of Constantine's Basilica of the Holy Sepulchre in the fourth century; after the celebration, the wood of the cross was venerated. The feast spread in the West after the recovery of the relics of the cross from Persia in the seventh century. A feast of the Lord, it celebrates the "lifting up" of the Son of Man on the cross, into glory, and the paradox of the cross as a symbol of humiliation and death, yet the source of victory and life.

OPENING
PRAYER

All-powerful God,
in obedience to your will,
your only Son suffered death on the cross
to save the human race.
Grant that we who embrace this mystery on earth
may share the triumph of his redemption in heaven.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

ALTERNATIVE
OPENING
PRAYER

Lifted up among us, O God,
is Jesus the crucified:
sign of your steadfast love
and pledge of your will to save.

To those who look upon the cross with faith grant healing of soul
and life eternal.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Lord,
may this sacrifice,
once offered on the altar of the cross
to take away the sin of the world,
free us now from all our offences.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER: Preface of the Holy Cross I, page 612, or Preface of the Passion of the Lord I, page 538.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Nourished at this heavenly table,
we ask you, Lord Jesus Christ,
to lead to the glory of the resurrection
all whose salvation you purchased by the life-giving wood of the cross.

You live and reign for ever and ever.

15 SEPTEMBER OUR LADY OF SORROWS
MEMORIAL

This commemoration originated in the medieval devotion to the seven sorrows of Mary. Approved for the Servite order in the seventeenth century, it was extended to the whole Western Church in 1814 by Pius VII in thanksgiving for his release from captivity under Napoleon. In the light of Simeon's prophecy about a sword piercing Mary's soul (Luke 2:35), the feast celebrates Mary, first disciple and first to share in the pain and triumph of the cross.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
when your Son was lifted high on the cross
you willed that his mother should stand beside him and share his suffering.
Grant that your Church,
joined with Mary in the passion of Christ,
may share in the glory of his resurrection.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

For the glory of your name, God of mercy, accept the prayers and offerings we present to you
in honour of the blessed Virgin Mary,
for by your will she became our loving mother
when she stood at the cross of Jesus.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER: Preface of the Blessed Virgin Mary I or II, pages 624-626.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Lord God,
we have received the sacrament of redemption;
grant that, as we recall how the Virgin Mary shared in the passion of her Son,
we too may complete in our lives
what is lacking in the sufferings of Christ
for the sake of his body, the Church.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

16 SEPTEMBER

CORNELIUS, POPE, MARTYR, AND CYPRIAN, BISHOP, MARTYR

Cornelius was elected bishop of Rome in 251 and, two years later, died in exile in Civitavecchia (Italy). Supported by Cyprian, he defended the power of the Church to reconcile those who had lapsed under persecution.

Cyprian was born at the beginning of the third century and died in Carthage (Tunisia) on 14 September 258. A lawyer, teacher, and adult convert, he was elected bishop of Carthage in 249 and led this Church in times of persecution. He took a moderate position on the reconciliation of the lapsed but, like other African bishops, demanded the rebaptism of heretics even though their baptism was recognised by the Church of Rome.

Cornelius and Cyprian are both remembered as compassionate pastors who developed the Church's teaching and practice of reconciliation. Antagonists in theological debate, they were united in sharing the crown of martyrdom and are named together in Eucharistic Prayer I (The Roman Canon).

Common of Martyrs: several martyrs, page 438; or Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a bishop), page 450.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
you gave your people
the martyrs Cornelius and Cyprian
as diligent pastors and undaunted witnesses to Christ;
grant through their intercession
that we may be strong and constant in faith
and work eagerly for the unity of the Church.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Accept, O Lord, the gifts your people offer
as we celebrate the martyrdom of Cornelius and Cyprian, and let the eucharist which gave them courage in persecution make us steadfast in adversity.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Lord God,
through the sacrament we have received
we pray that like the martyrs Cornelius and Cyprian
we may be empowered by your Spirit to bear faithful witness to the truth of the gospel.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

17 SEPTEMBER ROBERT BELLARMINE, BISHOP, RELIGIOUS,

DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Robert was born in Tuscany (Italy) in 1542 and died in Rome on this day in 1621. A Jesuit presbyter and professor of theology at Louvain and Rome, he became a cardinal and then archbishop of Capua (Italy). After three years, he returned to Rome as a theological adviser to Paul V. An outstanding theologian, he expounded Church teaching in catechisms for the faithful and defended it comprehensively against Protestant positions. He is remembered for his dedication to the truth, his charity in disputation, and his austerity of life.

Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a bishop), page 450; or Common of Doctors of the Church, page 461.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
to defend the faith of your Church
you endowed the bishop Robert Bellarmine with remarkable learning and holiness;
through his intercession
grant your people the joy
of preserving that faith in all its fullness.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

19 SEPTEMBER JANUARIUS, BISHOP, MARTYR

Januarius, bishop of Benevento (Italy), is said to have been martyred near Naples in the great persecution of the emperor Diocletian at the beginning of the fourth century. Since the Middle Ages, a relic of his blood has been specially venerated in Naples. In this day's Office of Readings, Saint Augustine (28 August) recalls that we are saved by the blood of Christ, and in this common redemption he sees the source of strength for the ministry of bishop.

Common of Martyrs: one martyr, page 445; or Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a bishop), page 450.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
you give us this celebration
to honour the memory of the blessed martyr Januarius.
Bring us one day to share his fellowship
in the joy of eternal life.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

20 SEPTEMBER
MEMORIAL

ANDREW KIM TAEAGON, PRESBYTER, MARTYR, PAUL CHONG HASANG, CATECHIST, MARTYR, AND THEIR COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Andrew Kim Taegon was the first Korean presbyter and Paul Chong Hasang a catechist and lay apostle. After more than two centuries of lay leadership, the Church in Korea was subject to fierce persecutions between 1839 and 1867. This feast commemorates 103 of the numerous Korean martyrs, representatives from all walks of life: men and women, married and unmarried, the elderly, teenagers and children, missionary bishops and presbyters. They are remembered for their fearless witness in the face of torture and death.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
Creator and Saviour of all nations,
you called to the Catholic faith in Korea
a people of adoption and nurtured their growth by the glorious martyrdom of Andrew, Paul, and their companions.

and labour in your Church for the salvation of all.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

21 SEPTEMBER MATTHEW, APOSTLE, EVANGELIST
FEAST

Matthew, also known as Levi, was a Jew who collected taxes for the Romans at Capernaum in Galilee. Here Jesus met him and called him to be an apostle (Luke 5:27-28). Matthew is venerated as the author of the gospel which highlights Jesus' role as Messiah and underlines the presence of the kingdom of God in the Church.

grant that,
with his example and prayers to help us,
we may follow your call with unwavering hearts.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER: Preface of the Apostles I or II, pages 632-634.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Lord God,
you have given us a share in that delight with which Saint Matthew welcomed the Saviour
as a guest at his table.
Nourish us always with the food of Christ,
who came to call not the righteous
but sinners to repentance.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

26 SEPTEMBER COSMAS AND DAMIAN, MARTYRS

Probably martyred in Syria, Cosmas and Damian were widely venerated in the fifth and sixth centuries when basilicas were dedicated to them in Constantinople and Rome and when their names were included in Eucharistic Prayer I (The Roman Canon). Later legend identified them as twin brothers who practised medicine without charge to their patients.

on this feast of the martyrs Cosmas and Damian;
let it bring us your healing grace and peace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

27 SEPTEMBER MEMORIAL VINCENT DE PAUL, PRESBYTER, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

Born in Gascony (France) in 1581, Vincent died in Paris on this day in 1660. A parish priest, he worked for the apostolic renewal of the clergy, founding the Congregation of the Mission (Vincentians or Lazarists) for missionary work in rural areas and for the formation of clergy. Committed above all to the oppressed and disadvantaged, he founded the Daughters of Charity with Louise de Marillac to work with the needy. He is remembered especially for his practical concern for the poor and the sick.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

transform our lives as well
into a gift that is pleasing in your sight.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Lord God,
hear the plea
of those you have refreshed at this holy table, that the example and prayers of Saint Vincent may help us to imitate your Son
in preaching the good news to the poor.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

28 SEPTEMBER WENCESLAUS, RULER, MARTYR

Wenceslaus was born about 907 in Bohemia (Czech Republic) and was killed there about 929. Raised a Christian by his grandmother, he ruled Bohemia with Christian principles, worked for the education of his people, and sought harmony with neighbouring Germanic peoples. Opposition to these policies led to his murder at the hands of his brother's followers. This earliest Slav saint is remembered for his selflessness in promoting the Christian faith.

Common of Martyrs: one martyr, page 445.

OPENING PRAYER

O God,
you taught the blessed martyr Wenceslaus
to prize the kingdom of heaven above an earthly crown;
grant through his prayers
that we may deny ourselves and cling to you with all our hearts.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

28 SEPTEMBER LAWRENCE RUIZ, MARRIED MAN, MARTYR, AND HIS COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

This commemoration marks the witness of sixteen among the many martyred in Nagasaki (Japan) between 1633 and 1637. They include Lawrence Ruiz, a Filipino husband and father, together with other associates of the Dominican order, Asians and Europeans, lay women and men, religious and presbyters. They are remembered as courageous missionaries who sowed abundant seeds of the Christian faith in the Philippines, Taiwan, and Japan and who remained fearless in the face of death.

for those who suffer persecution for justice' sake
are blessed in the kingdom of heaven.

who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

29 SEPTEMBER MICHAEL, GABRIEL, AND RAPHAEL, ARCHANGELS

FEAST

The cult of Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael began in the East. In the West, this day first marked the dedication of a fifth century church of Saint Michael in Rome. This festival of Michaelmas came to be very popular and widely celebrated in medieval Europe. Raphael and Gabriel were added to the Roman calendar in the twentieth century, and the three are now celebrated together. In the Scriptures (for example, Revelation 12:7-9, Luke 1:26-38, Tobit 3:16-25), each of the three angels is named as a messenger of God, entrusted with special divine missions on earth.

OPENING
PRAYER

All-provident God,
you arrange in wonderful order every ministry,
both human and angelic;
grant that the angels,
who stand before your face to serve you,
may guard and assist our lives on earth.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

O Lord,
we offer you this sacrifice of praise,
imploing that our sacrifice,
borne into your presence by the ministry of an angel,
may be pleasing in your sight
and helpful to our salvation.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER: Preface of the Angels, page 614.

PRAYER
AFTER

Restored by the bread of heaven,
we ask, Lord God,

30 SEPTEMBER JEROME, PRESBYTER, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
MEMORIAL

Jerome was born about 340 at Strido on the Adriatic coast and died in Bethlehem on this day in 420. Baptised in Rome while studying the classics, he became a hermit in Syria for a time and was ordained a presbyter. Later retained as papal secretary by Saint Damasus (11 December), he began work on a new Latin translation of the Bible, known as the Vulgate. Finally settling in Bethlehem, where he founded monasteries, he devoted himself to studying the Scriptures, writing, and teaching. Often irascible and intolerant, he is remembered for his asceticism and scholarship and, above all, for his incomparable service to the word of God.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
you inspired Saint Jerome, your priest,
with a passionate delight in Holy Scripture;
grant that your people
may be nourished more richly by your word
and find in it a wellspring of eternal life.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Following the example of Saint Jerome, O Lord,
we have pondered your word in Holy Scripture;
make us more eager now
to offer you the sacrifice of salvation.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Lord God,
let the gifts we have received with joy
on this feast of Saint Jerome
stir up our hearts,
so that by studying the Holy Scriptures
we may understand the path we are to follow
and, following it, may come to eternal life.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

OCTOBER

1 OCTOBER THÉRÈSE OF THE CHILD JESUS, VIRGIN, RELIGIOUS, MEMORIAL DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Born at Alençon (France) in 1873, Thérèse died of tuberculosis at Lisieux on 30 September 1897. From a devout family, she entered a Carmelite monastery at fifteen, where she embraced the suffering of her ill-health with love and in service to the missionary spread of the gospel. Known through her popular autobiography and loved for her unaffected simplicity, Thérèse is remembered for her humble obedience and her fidelity to ordinary duties as the path to sanctity.

enable us to follow with simple trust
the little way of Saint Thérèse,
so that through her intercession
your eternal glory may be revealed to us.

enkindle in us that ardent love which moved Saint Thérèse to surrender herself to you and to beg your mercy for the entire world.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

2 OCTOBER THE GUARDIAN ANGELS
MEMORIAL

This feast originated in Portugal early in the sixteenth century and has figured in the general calendar since the late seventeenth century. It is based on the belief that God assigns everyone an angel to guard body and soul, an expression of God's personal care for each individual. A similar belief is also found in Jewish and other religious thought. The feast associates the human race with the eternal song of praise in heaven (Matthew 18:10).

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
in your mysterious providence
you send your holy angels as our guardians;
graciously hear the prayer we offer,
that we may have their constant protection on earth
and the joy of their company in heaven.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Lord,
receive the gifts we bring
on the feast of your holy angels, and grant that under their constant protection
we may be freed from present dangers and come to the joy of eternal life.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER: Preface of the Angels, page 614.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Lord God,
you nourish us with these great sacraments
on our journey to eternal life;
by the ministry of your angels
direct us in the way of salvation and peace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

4 OCTOBER FRANCIS OF ASSISI, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER
MEMORIAL

Francis was born in Assisi (Italy) in 1181 or 1182 and died nearby on 3 October 1226. The carefree son of a wealthy merchant, he gave up his inheritance to embrace utter poverty. Under a simple gospel rule, he and his Friars Minor were authorised to be mendicant preachers. His “Canticle of the Sun” captures his lyrical spirit and sense of oneness with all creatures. At the end of his life Francis bore in his flesh the marks of Christ’s suffering. An outstanding example of the beatitude “Blessed are the poor in spirit,” he is remembered for preaching the poor and crucified Christ in both word and humble action.

OPENING
PRAYER

Lord God,
you conformed Saint Francis to the likeness of Christ
through a life of poverty and humility.
Grant that, walking in his ways,
we too may follow your Son,
and so be joined to you in charity and joy.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Lord,
as we bring these gifts before you,
prepare our hearts to celebrate the mystery of the cross, which Saint Francis embraced with such burning love.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Lord God,
through the holy gifts we have received,
grant that, imitating the apostolic charity and zeal
of Saint Francis,
we may come to know the saving power of your love
and be its heralds to all the world.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 OCTOBER BRUNO, PRESBYTER, HERMIT, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

Bruno was born in Cologne (Germany) about 1032 and died in Calabria (Italy) on this day in 1101. Professor at the cathedral school of Rheims, he was appointed chancellor of the diocese and helped to reform the clergy. He founded the Carthusian order of hermits at Chartreuse near Grenoble. Called by his former pupil Urban II to assist in Rome for a time, Bruno subsequently established a second Charterhouse in Calabria. He is remembered especially for the poverty, solitude, and austerity of his way of life.

OPENING
PRAYER

Almighty God,
you called Saint Bruno to serve you
in a life of solitude;

our hearts may find rest in you alone.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

7 OCTOBER OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY

MEMORIAL

This commemoration was established in 1573 in thanksgiving for a Christian victory over the Ottoman forces at Lepanto. It entered the general calendar in the eighteenth century. It is a memorial of the Virgin Mary as honoured in the rosary, a form of prayer combining the salutation of the angel (Luke 1:28) with meditation on the saving mysteries of Christ. Originally the rosary was the laity's "psalter," the Hail Marys replacing the 150 psalms.

OPENING PRAYER

Pour forth, O Lord, your grace into our hearts:
once through the message of an angel
you revealed to us the incarnation of Christ your Son;
now, with the prayers of the blessed Virgin Mary,
lead us through his passion and cross
to the glory of the resurrection.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Conform our hearts, O Lord, to the gifts we offer and teach us to recall the mysteries of your only Son,
that we may be worthy of the promises of Christ,
who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER: Preface of the Blessed Virgin Mary I or II, pages 624-626.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Lord our God,
grant that we who proclaim in this sacrament
the death and resurrection of your Son
may be joined to his passion and share in his consolation and glory.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

9 OCTOBER DENIS, BISHOP, MARTYR,
AND HIS COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Denis died in Paris in the middle of the third century. According to a sixth century account, he was sent from Rome as the first bishop of Paris, where he was subsequently beheaded together with a presbyter and a deacon. His popularity flowered in the ninth century, when he was confused with a fifth century mystical author who in turn was taken to be Dionysius the Areopagite, disciple of Saint Paul (Acts 17:34). Denis is remembered as founder of the local Church of Paris.

Common of Martyrs: several martyrs, page 438.

OPENING
PRAYER

Lord our God,
you sent Saint Denis and his companions to preach your glory to the nations
and made them steadfast in their sufferings;
grant that, following their example,
we may disdain the empty promises of this world
and not be cast down by its hardships.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

9 OCTOBER JOHN LEONARDI, PRESBYTER, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

Born at Lucca (Italy) about 1541, John died helping the sick in Rome on this day in 1609. He was active in the years immediately after the Council of Trent, publishing a catechism and establishing a confraternity of Christian doctrine. He helped form the seminary of the Propagation of the Faith in Rome and founded a local congregation of diocesan presbyters for the reform of clerical life. John is remembered for his vigorous encouragement of the reforms of the Council.

Common of Pastors: missionaries, page 458; or Common of Other Saints: those who carried out works of mercy, page 466, or religious, page 468.

to preach the gospel to the nations;
through his intercession
grant that at all times and in every place
the true faith may yield an abundant harvest.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

14 OCTOBER CALLISTUS I, POPE, MARTYR

Callistus died in a civil disturbance in Rome about 222 and has been venerated as a martyr since the fourth century. He was born a slave and served a sentence as a convict. After his release, he was ordained a deacon and was eventually elected bishop of Rome. Rigorist opponents accused him of misunderstanding the doctrine of the incarnation and of laxity in Church discipline. He is remembered for encouraging the reconciliation of sinners and for his pastoral solicitude for those preparing to marry.

Common of Martyrs: one martyr, page 445; or Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a pope), page 450.

God for ever and ever.

Born at Avila (Spain) in 1515, Teresa died at Alba de Tormes in 1582. She left her aristocratic family for the Carmelite monastery in Avila at the age of twenty, but it was only after two decades of dryness in prayer that she felt an inner conversion to Christ. She is honoured as a spiritual writer and mystic who experienced and comprehensively described the life of prayer. Teresa is remembered as a strong, practical reformer who restored the strict Carmelite observance of poverty, solitude, and austerity.

to show your Church the way of perfection.
Nourish our minds with her spiritual teaching,

this family dedicated to your service;

MEMORIAL

Ignatius, probably a Syrian, was martyred in Rome about 107. At Antioch, where he was bishop, his death has been commemorated on this day since the fourth century. 18 OCTOBER LUKE, EVANGELIST
FEAST

By early Christian tradition, Luke is named as author of the Third Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles. Almost certainly a Gentile and perhaps a companion of Saint Paul (29 June), he wrote to reassure those who had grown uncertain toward the end of the first century. In his gospel, the compassion of Christ is inclusive of all: Gentile and Jew, the poor and the rich, women and men, the outcast and the privileged.

Lord our God,

to reveal by his preaching and writing
the mystery of your love for the poor;
grant that those who now glory in your name

Against a background of conflict between French and English and between Huron, Mohawk, and Iroquois, they went as missionaries teaching the message of Christ in the local languages. They are remembered for the hardship they suffered for the sake of the gospel, eventually embracing even torture and death.

Paul is remembered for his prophetic preaching in parish missions, for calling sinners to repentance, and for his special gifts of healing.

After more than a decade preaching missions and retreats in Catalonia, he founded a religious institute, later known as the Claretians, for this work. Appointed archbishop of Santiago (Cuba), he aroused opposition for his spiritual and social reforms and for championing the rights of the indigenous peoples. Finally, as chaplain to Queen Isabella II, he drew the arts and sciences into his missionary endeavour. He is remembered for his work of religious renewal through the spoken and printed word.

NOVEMBER

1 NOVEMBER ALL SAINTS SOLEMNITY

This feast began in the East to commemorate all martyrs and was progressively adopted in the West. It was celebrated on this day in the eighth century and was soon widely observed. you have given us this feast to celebrate on one day
the holy men and women of every time and place.

As we keep the festival of your saints,
give us their meekness and poverty of spirit,
a thirst for righteousness,

and be clothed in the glory you bestow.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

BLESSING: Solemn Blessing, page 933.

2 NOVEMBER THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED
(ALL SOULS)

This day of commemoration began early in the Middle Ages with annual prayers for the dead in monastic communities. Fixed on this day, it spread more widely after the tenth century and now ranks with the principal feast days in the liturgical calendar. Commonly known as All Souls, it expresses Christian faith in the communion of saints and our need to pray for one another in the Church, especially those souls in purgatory, “who have been buried in their human imperfection.”

Even when 2 November falls on a Sunday, the commemoration of all the faithful departed is celebrated. The priest may choose from the following prayers.

OPENING
PRAYER

God of loving-kindness,
listen favourably to our prayers:
strengthen our belief that your Son has risen from the dead and our hope that your departed servants will also rise again.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

Or: O God,
glory of believers and life of the just,
by the death and resurrection of your Son, we are redeemed:
have mercy on your departed servants
and make them worthy to share the joys of paradise,
for they believed in the resurrection of the dead.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

Or: God, our Creator and Redeemer,
by your power your only Son has conquered death
and has passed from this world into your kingdom.
Grant that all the faithful departed
may share his triumph over death and enjoy for ever the vision of your glory.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Lord,
be pleased by our offering
and gather your departed servants into glory with your Son, in whose great mystery of love we are all united.

We make our prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Or: By this sacrifice, merciful God,
wash away in the blood of Christ
the sins of our departed brothers and sisters.
You cleansed them once in the water of baptism;
in your mercy grant them pardon and eternal rest.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

Or In your kindness, Lord,
accept our offering for all who sleep in Christ,
that by the power of his unique sacrifice
they may be freed from the shackles of death and enter the kingdom of life eternal,
where he lives and reigns for ever and ever.

Or: Lord,
we have received the sacrament of your only Son,
who was sacrificed for us and rose in glory.
We humbly pray for the faithful departed,
that, purified by these paschal mysteries,
they may share in the glory of the final resurrection.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Or: Lord,
you have accepted this sacrifice,
offered for our departed brothers and sisters.

Lord,
keep alive in your people
the spirit you imparted to your bishop Charles Borromeo and renew your Church unceasingly,

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE

Look with favour, Lord,
on the gifts we have placed upon your altar

and distinguished virtue;
grant by the power of this sacrifice
that our lives too may abound in good works.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Lord God,
let the holy mystery which we have received imbue us with that same strength of spirit which made Saint Charles faithful in ministry and fervent in charity.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

9 NOVEMBER
FEAST

THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA IN ROME

The Lateran Basilica, the cathedral of the diocese of Rome, was dedicated to Christ the Saviour in the fourth century. The anniversary has been celebrated as a feast of the Latin Church on this date since the twelfth century. It honours the local Church of Rome as a link with earliest Christian tradition and as a sign of our communion in Christ.

OPENING
PRAYER

God of majesty,
you choose living stones
to fashion for yourself an eternal dwelling place.
Increase the spiritual gifts you have given to your Church,
that your faithful people may continue to grow
and so build up the new and heavenly Jerusalem.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

Or: God of blessings,
you gave to your assembled people the name of Church:
grant that all who gather in your name
may love, reverence, and follow you,
and under your governance
be brought to the life of glory that you promise.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

ALTERNATIVE
OPENING
PRAYER

God all-holy,
in every place on earth
you gather your people into your presence to proclaim the wonders of your love.

As we celebrate the dedication of the cathedral church of Rome, deepen our unity with your faithful throughout the world
and build us up into a house of prayer for all nations.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Accept, Lord, the sacrifice we offer,
and grant that all who seek your aid
may be strengthened by the power of the sacraments and receive an answer to their prayers.

We make our prayer in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

O God,
you chose to foreshadow in your Church on earth
the new and heavenly Jerusalem.
Through our sharing in this sacrament,
fashion us into a temple of your grace and lead us one day to the place where your glory dwells.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

BLESSING: Solemn Blessing, page 956.

10 NOVEMBER LEO THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
MEMORIAL

Elected pope in 440, Leo died in Rome on this day in 461. He tried to protect the city from the devastation of barbarian invasion. His surviving letters illustrate the leadership and guidance he exercised as bishop of Rome toward other Churches in the West. He is remembered for the clarity of his thought on the two natures of Christ, affirmed at the Council of Chalcedon, for his eloquent sermons, and for the prayers he composed for the Roman liturgy.

Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a pope), page 450; or Common of Doctors of the Church, page 461.

OPENING
PRAYER

Lord God,
you will never permit the gates of hell

founded as it is on the rock of Peter.
Grant through the intercession of Pope Leo the Great

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,

in your goodness govern the Church,
whose life you foster at the table of the eucharist;
grant that under your firm guidance
your Church may prosper in freedom and persevere in the integrity of faith.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

11 NOVEMBER MARTIN OF TOURS, BISHOP
MEMORIAL

Martin was born in Pannonia (Hungary) about 316, died in 397, and was buried on this day in Tours (France). As a catechumen, he was in conscience unable to continue with military service. Martin was baptised at the age of eighteen, for a time became a hermit, and then worked to establish monasticism in the West. He was bishop of Tours for twenty-five years. One of the first non-martyrs to be venerated as a saint, he is widely remembered for his legendary generosity to the poor, for arguing against the persecution of heretics, and especially for his active evangelisation and pastoral care of rural areas.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
the life and the death of the holy bishop Martin proclaimed your glory;
renew in our hearts the wonders of your grace,
so that neither death nor life may separate us
from your love in Christ Jesus our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Lord,
sanctify the gifts we offer with gladness
on the feast of Saint Martin,
so that in joy and in sorrow
the eucharist may always shape our lives.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Lord God,
you have renewed us with the sacrament of unity;
keep us in perfect accord with your will,
so that, like Saint Martin who obeyed you in all things,
we too may glory in belonging entirely to you.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 NOVEMBER JOSAPHAT, BISHOP, RELIGIOUS, MARTYR
MEMORIAL

Born in Vladimir (Ukraine) in 1580, Josaphat died at Vitebsk (Belarus) on this day in 1623. A Basilian monk, he became archbishop of Polotsk. He worked strenuously to uphold and spread the Union of Brest-Litovsk by which Churches of the province of Kiev, with their Byzantine liturgy and customs, had entered into communion with Rome. In a complex situation of national and religious antagonism, he was killed by violent opponents. He is remembered for his energetic pastoral reform and courageous ecumenism.

Common of Martyrs: one martyr, page 445; or Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a bishop), page 450.

OPENING
PRAYER

Stir up in your Church, O Lord, the Holy Spirit, who moved Saint Josaphat to give his life for his people,
so that through his intercession
we too, in the strength of the same Spirit,
may not fear to lay down our life for our friends.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

God of all mercy,

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER
AFTER
COMMUNION

Grant, O God, that this holy meal
may bring us the Spirit of courage and peace,
so that like Saint Josaphat
we may gladly spend our lives
for the honour and unity of your Church.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

15 NOVEMBER ALBERT THE GREAT, BISHOP, RELIGIOUS,
DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Albert was born in Lauingen (Germany) about 1200 and died in Cologne on this day in 1280. The “Universal Doctor” was a Dominican friar and teacher, most notably in Paris and in Cologne where Saint Thomas Aquinas (28 January) was his pupil. He was briefly bishop of Regensburg, but resigned the see to return to teaching and writing. Albert is remembered for the outstanding breadth of his learning in the natural sciences, Jewish and Arabic studies, and Greek philosophy, all of which he brought to the service of his theology.

Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a bishop), page 450; or Common of Doctors of the Church, page 461.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
in your holy bishop Albert
you so wonderfully blended human wisdom and divine faith that your people rightly call him great.
Keep us true to his teaching,
so that through the progress of all the sciences
we may come to know and to love you more profoundly.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

16 NOVEMBER MARGARET OF SCOTLAND, MARRIED WOMAN, QUEEN

Born in Hungary about 1046, Margaret died in Edinburgh (Scotland) on this day in 1093. Of Anglo-Saxon and Hungarian parentage, she found refuge from the Norman conquest of England with Malcolm III of Scotland. They were married in 1070, and she bore eight children. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

16 NOVEMBER GERTRUDE THE GREAT, VIRGIN, RELIGIOUS

Born about 1256, Gertrude died at Helfta (Germany) about 1302. From five years of age, she was entrusted to Benedictine or possibly Cistercian nuns, among whom she experienced a deep conversion at the age of twenty-five and lived a life of mystical contemplation. Gertrude found Christ in the liturgy and Scripture, and on this foundation she developed her devotion to the humanity of Jesus and, together with it, a love of the heart of Jesus. She is remembered as one of the most important of medieval mystics.

Common of Other Saints: virgins, page 463, or religious, page 468.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
how lovely the dwelling place you prepared for yourself
in the heart of the virgin Gertrude;
in answer to her prayers,
shine in the darkness of our hearts,
that we may rejoice in your presence working within us.

who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

17 NOVEMBER ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY, MARRIED WOMAN, RELIGIOUS
MEMORIAL

Born in Bratislava (Slovakia) in 1207, Elizabeth was married at the age of fourteen, widowed at twenty, and died at twenty-four in Marburg (Germany) on this day in 1231. Mother of three children, she was happily married to Ludwig of Thuringia. When Ludwig died of the plague while on crusade, she continued to protect the poor and founded orphanages and hospitals, living this life of service as a Franciscan tertiary despite the hostility of her relatives and the harshness of her confessor. She is remembered for her good-humoured resilience in adversity and for her humility in menial service of the needy.

Common of Other Saints: those who carried out works of mercy, page 466.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
you taught Saint Elizabeth of Hungary
to see and reverence Christ in the poor.
Through the power of her prayers

all those in need or distress.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

18 NOVEMBER THE DEDICATION OF THE BASILICAS
OF THE APOSTLES PETER AND PAUL IN ROME

Saint Peter's Basilica in Rome, built in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, and Saint Paul's Basilica, built in the nineteenth century, both replaced older buildings erected by Constantine in the fourth century over the tombs of the apostles Peter and Paul. The dedications of these churches have been commemorated together on this day since the twelfth century. As on 29 June, the universal Church joins the Church of Rome in honouring its apostles.

OPENING
PRAYER

Shelter your Church, O Lord,
under the protection of your apostles.
From them the Church first heard the good news of salvation;
through them may it grow in grace until the end of time.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

Lord,
as we present these gifts to you in worship,
we appeal to your mercy:

the truth handed on to us
through the ministry of the apostles Peter and Paul.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER: Preface of the Apostles I, page 632.

PRAYER

on this feast of the apostles Peter and Paul may find joy in their protection and guidance.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

21 NOVEMBER THE PRESENTATION OF THE VIRGIN MARY
MEMORIAL

This memorial originally marked the dedication of a sixth century church of the Virgin Mary near the Temple of Jerusalem. The East took it up as a celebration of Mary's presentation to God in the Temple at the age of three, a non-biblical story from the apocryphal gospel of James. Established in the West late in the Middle Ages, the feast was universally observed by the sixteenth century. It celebrates Mary in her grace-filled life, wholly given over to the Holy Spirit from the time of her conception.

Common of the Blessed Virgin Mary: Ordinary Time, page 434.

OPENING
PRAYER

Grant, O Lord,
that we who honour the glorious memory of the blessed Virgin Mary may through her intercession
come to share in the fullness of your grace.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

22 NOVEMBER CECILIA, VIRGIN, MARTYR
MEMORIAL

Though a late fourth century church in Rome was named after her, nothing is known of Cecilia's life or death. Popular legends were written about her in the late fifth century, and in the sixteenth century she was named the patron of music. Tradition remembers Cecilia as a virgin, martyred for the faith. Her name is included in Eucharistic Prayer I (The Roman Canon).

Common of Martyrs: virgin martyr, page 448; or Common of Other Saints: virgins, page 463.

OPENING
PRAYER

Lord God,
draw near to us
who call upon you in prayer,
and, through the intercession of Saint Cecilia,
graciously hear our songs of praise.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

23 NOVEMBER CLEMENT I, POPE, MARTYR

Clement of Rome died in New Testament times, at the end of the first century. His name is included in Eucharistic Prayer I (The Roman Canon). He is remembered for a letter written from the Church at Rome to the Church at Corinth, an important witness to the emergence of ministries and authority in the Church and to the pastoral responsibility of Rome to another Church.

Common of Martyrs: one martyr, page 445; or Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a pope), page 450.

OPENING
PRAYER

Almighty and everlasting God,
you are wonderful in the holiness of your saints.
Fill us with joy on this yearly feast of Saint Clement,
for, as martyr and priest of your Son,
he bore witness by his blood to the mysteries he celebrated,
and confirmed by his example the gospel he preached.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

23 NOVEMBER COLUMBAN, ABBOT, MISSIONARY

Born in Leinster (Ireland) about 543, Columban died on this day in 615 at Bobbio (Italy). A monk and teacher at Bangor until middle aged, he left with twelve companions as “exiles for Christ” to found monasteries in Burgundy (France). Against opposition, he insisted on maintaining strict Celtic customs and usages. Expelled for denouncing royal misconduct, he went on to extend the Irish mission through the Alps and into Italy. Author of a monastic rule and a penitential, he is remembered for his austerity of life, his missionary energy, and his role in the development of individual confession.

Common of Pastors: missionaries, page 458; or Common of Other Saints: religious (for an abbot), page 468.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
in Saint Columban you have given us a wonderful model of missionary zeal joined with love of the monastic life.
Grant through his intercession and example that we may seek you above all things, and work to enlarge the company
of those who believe in you.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

24 NOVEMBER MEMORIAL ANDREW DUNG-LAC, PRESBYTER, MARTYR,
AND HIS COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Andrew (1795-1839), baptised at the age of fifteen, worked first as a lay missionary and then as a diocesan presbyter before being beheaded at Hanoi (Vietnam). He is listed among 117 canonised martyrs who died in Vietnam between 1820 and 1862. The group comprises ninety-six Vietnamese, eleven Spanish Dominicans, and ten presbyters from the Paris Foreign Mission Society. They are remembered as representatives of the thousands of Christians tortured and martyred in Vietnam between the seventeenth and nineteenth centuries: bishops, presbyters, religious, and lay people, both children and adults.

OPENING
PRAYER

God our Father,
in whom every family has its source,
you kept the holy martyrs Andrew Dung-Lac and his companions
faithful to the cross of your Son,
even to the shedding of their blood.

we may prove ourselves your children,
not only in name but in truth.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER

On this feast of the holy martyrs,
we beg you, Lord God,
that, nourished by one bread,
we may remain one in your love,
and through patient endurance gain an eternal reward.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

30 NOVEMBER ANDREW, APOSTLE
FEAST

Born at Bethsaida (Galilee), Andrew was a fisherman and perhaps a disciple of John the Baptist (24 June). He introduced his brother, Simon Peter (29 June), to Jesus and became one of the first to follow Christ. He is mentioned a number of times in the gospels, for example, in introducing some Gentiles to Jesus (John 12:20ff.). Widely venerated since ancient times, he is remembered as one of the twelve who bore witness to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

DECEMBER

3 DECEMBER FRANCIS XAVIER, PRESBYTER, RELIGIOUS, MISSIONARY MEMORIAL

Born in 1506 in Navarre (Spain), Francis died on this day in 1552 off the coast of China. While studying in Paris, he met Saint Ignatius of Loyola (31 July), became one of the first Jesuits, and went to Goa (India) as a missionary. From there he travelled extensively through southeast Asia to Japan, winning many converts and leaving behind organised Christian communities. He is remembered for the witness of his poverty and for his tireless efforts as a missionary.

Common of Pastors: missionaries, page 458; or Common of Other Saints: religious, page 468.

OPENING PRAYER

O God,

and hasten to meet you with a multitude of brothers and sisters.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

O God,
let your holy mysteries enkindle in us
the same eagerness for the salvation of souls which inflamed Saint Francis, that we may lead a life more worthy of our calling and receive with him the reward promised to those who labour in your vineyard.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

4 DECEMBER JOHN OF DAMASCUS, PRESBYTER, RELIGIOUS,

DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

John was born about 675 in Damascus (Syria) and died near Jerusalem about 749. A Christian official in a Moslem government, he became a monk and later presbyter at Mar Saba monastery near Jerusalem, where he was renowned as a theologian and biblical commentator. He is remembered for his vigorous defence of the veneration of images against the iconoclasts, for his theological writings synthesising the thought of the Greek Fathers, and for his poetry and hymnody.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

6 DECEMBER NICHOLAS, BISHOP

Bishop of Myra (Turkey), Nicholas died in the fourth century. Nothing more is known about his life. Since the tenth century, he has been widely venerated and frequently claimed as a patron in both East and West. His cult in the West was further ensured when his relics were moved from Myra to Bari (Italy) in the eleventh century. Nicholas's reputation for generosity led to the custom of giving children gifts on his feast day, and thus to the Christmas figure of Santa Claus.

Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a bishop), page 450.

OPENING
PRAYER

Turn to us, Lord, in your mercy,
and, through the intercession of the bishop Saint Nicholas,
watch over us in every danger,

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

7 DECEMBER AMBROSE, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
MEMORIAL

Born in Trier (Germany) about 340, Ambrose was ordained bishop on this day in 374 and died at Milan (Italy) on Holy Saturday 397. A lawyer, he became governor in Milan and was still a catechumen when elected bishop by popular acclaim. He upheld orthodoxy against the Arians and won many Christian converts. He encouraged monasticism and defended the independence of the Church against secular authority. Ambrose is remembered as an outstanding pastor through his writings on the sacraments and Christian ethics and through his homilies, instructions, and hymns.

Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a bishop), page 450; or Common of Doctors of the Church, page 461.

we may be ready to delight in your eternal banquet.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

8 DECEMBER THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION
SOLEMNITY OF THE VIRGIN MARY

This feast had its origin in the East as the "Conception of Mary by Saint Anne." It spread through the West during the Middle Ages as the "Immaculate Conception" and was extended to the entire Western Church in the eighteenth century. The feast celebrates Mary, preserved from sin from the moment of conception; she is the firstfruits of her Son's redemption and a prophetic model of what the Church is called to be.

OPENING
PRAYER

Lord our God,
through the immaculate conception of the Virgin Mary
you prepared a worthy dwelling for your Son.
As you preserved her from all taint of sin
by the salvation his death would bring,
so, through her intercession, cleanse us from our faults
and lead us safely into your presence.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

ALTERNATIVE
OPENING
PRAYER

God most high,
from the first moment of her conception
you favoured the Virgin Mary with your grace, that she might become the mother of the world's Redeemer.

As you blessed the daughter of Israel,
so grant us the grace
to be fully engaged in your service,
eager to do your will.
Hasten that day of gladness
when you will bring to completion your saving work,
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER
OVER THE
GIFTS

In your goodness, Lord, receive the sacrifice of salvation
which we offer on the feast of the immaculate conception.
We profess in faith that your grace preserved the Virgin Mary
from every stain of sin;
through her intercession deliver us from all our faults.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER: Preface of the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin Mary, page 618.

heal in us the wounds of that sin
from which you preserved the Virgin Mary through the singular grace of her immaculate conception.

Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

11 DECEMBER DAMASUS I, POPE

Born in Rome about 305, Damasus, the son of a presbyter, died there on this day in 384. Elected bishop of Rome amid violent rivalry, he was active in opposing fourth century heresies. After Christianity became the official religion of the Roman state and Latin was becoming the principal liturgical language, he commissioned Saint Jerome (30 September) to prepare a new Latin translation of the Bible. He is also remembered for promoting the cult of the Roman martyrs, inscribing their tombs with epitaphs in verse.

Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a pope), page 450.

OPENING PRAYER

Lord,
grant that we may always celebrate with devotion
the virtues of your martyrs,
whom Pope Saint Damasus honoured and loved so well.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

12 DECEMBER JANE FRANCES DE CHANTAL, MARRIED WOMAN, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

Jane was born in Dijon (France) in 1572 and died at Moulins on 13 December 1641. She married Baron Christophe de Chantal at the age of twenty, but after nine years she was left a widow with four children. Her friendship with Saint Francis de Sales (24 January) led to the establishment of the Congregation of the Visitation, which offered an alternative form of religious life for women, less severe in its ascetic discipline. She is remembered for her administrative ability and for her visits to the sick and poor.

Common of Other Saints: religious, page 468.

OPENING PRAYER

O God,
your grace shone brightly in Jane Frances de Chantal
as wife and mother and as religious founder.
Help each of us through her prayers to follow our calling faithfully
and to reflect in our lives the light of Christ.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

13 DECEMBER LUCY, VIRGIN, MARTYR
MEMORIAL

Lucy died at Syracuse in Sicily, probably in the persecution of the emperor Diocletian in 304. Widely venerated from the earliest times, her memorial has long been kept on this day. Probably because her name is suggestive of light, her intercession has been sought for eyesight problems. Lucy is named in Eucharistic Prayer I (The Roman Canon) and is remembered as a youth, radiant with Christian faith and courage.

Common of Martyrs: virgin martyr, page 448; or Common of Other Saints: virgins, page 463.

OPENING
PRAYER

Enlighten your Church, O Lord,
through the intercession of the virgin martyr Lucy,
that we who celebrate the festival of her birth into heaven
may one day behold with her the vision of your glory.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

14 DECEMBER JOHN OF THE CROSS, PRESBYTER, RELIGIOUS, MEMORIAL DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Born in 1542 at Fontiveros (Spain), John died on this day in Ubeda. A Carmelite presbyter, he joined Saint Teresa of Jesus (15 October) in the work of Carmelite reform and, despite opposition and imprisonment, organised the discalced Carmelites. He is remembered for his mystical writings, which combine theology and poetry to describe the spiritual journey through darkness to union with God.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
you inspired the holy priest John with fervent self-denial and a singular love of the cross;
grant that, faithful to his teaching and example,
we may reach the everlasting vision of your glory.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,

PRAYER

which we celebrate in this sacrament.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER

O God,
in the life of blessed John
you revealed the mystery of the cross;

21 DECEMBER PETER CANISIUS, PRESBYTER, RELIGIOUS,

DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Peter was born at Nijmegen (Netherlands) in 1521 and died in Fribourg (Switzerland) on this day in 1597. He was a Jesuit presbyter who spent his time writing and teaching in universities and colleges. Together with his easily understood preaching and the writing of his famous catechisms, his academic life enabled him to restore and strengthen Catholic belief in response to the Reformation. He is remembered for his courtesy in debate and for his use of the press in promoting the Catholic revival after the Council of Trent.

Common of Pastors: other pastors, page 454; or Common of Doctors of the Church, page 461; or Common of Other Saints: religious, page 468.

OPENING
PRAYER

O God,
for the defence of the Catholic faith
you endowed your priest Peter Canisius with courage and learning.

Through his intercession
grant to those who seek the truth
the joy of finding you, the one true God,
and to those who confess your name
the grace of persevering in the faith.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

23 DECEMBER JOHN OF KANTY, PRESBYTER

Born at Kanty (Poland) in 1390, John died at Cracow on 24 December 1473. Ordained a presbyter, he taught philosophy, theology, and Scripture at the university in Cracow. John urged his students to moderation in controversy. He is remembered for his excellent teaching, for the austerity of his personal life, and for the generosity of his almsgiving.

Common of Pastors: other pastors, page 454; or Common of Other Saints: those who carried out works of mercy, page 466.

OPENING
PRAYER

Grant, almighty God,
that like Saint John of Kanty
we may advance in the knowledge of holy things and, by showing compassion toward all,
obtain pardon for our sins.

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

29 DECEMBER THOMAS BECKET, BISHOP, MARTYR

Born in London (England) in 1118, Thomas, archbishop of Canterbury, was murdered in his cathedral on this day in 1170. A deacon when he was appointed chancellor of England, he became a close friend of Henry II. His ordination as bishop brought an abrupt conversion of life and led him to oppose the king over Church rights. After six years' refuge in a French monastery he returned to his diocese, but careless words from the king inspired four knights to assassinate him. Immediately acknowledged as a martyr, he is remembered for the courage of his Christian convictions.

Common of Martyrs: one martyr, page 445; or Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a bishop), page 450.

OPENING PRAYER

O God,
you gave the holy martyr Thomas Becket strength to lay down his life with great courage,
for the sake of justice.

Enable us through his intercession
to lose our life for Christ in this world,
that we may find our life in heaven.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

31 DECEMBER SYLVESTER I, POPE

Sylvester, elected bishop of Rome in 314, died there on this day in 335. He is remembered as the bishop of Rome in the important years when the Christian Church was first tolerated and then legally recognised in the Roman empire. It was during this time that the emperor Constantine called councils at Arles and Nicaea to combat heresy and that great basilicas were built in Rome and throughout the empire.

Common of Pastors: popes and other bishops (for a pope), page 450.

OPENING PRAYER

Lord,
come to the aid of your people,
who rely on the prayers of Pope Saint Sylvester;
guide us through the days of this passing life
and lead us to the life that knows no end.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

THE COMMON OF SAINTS

1 The following Mass texts may be used in celebrating the memorial of saints that do not have a proper Mass formulary. Texts should be chosen that best correspond to the life and death of the particular saint.

In this edition, corresponding prayers from the same common have been grouped together to facilitate choosing the most appropriate text.

In addition, for Masses of memorials, the prayer over the gifts and the prayer after communion may be taken from the weekdays of the current liturgical season as well as from the commons.

2 In the common of martyrs and in the common of other saints, other holy men and women, all the prayers may be used of men or women with the necessary change of gender.

3 In the individual commons, texts in the singular may be changed to the plural and vice versa.

4 Certain Masses which are given for specific seasons and circumstances should be used for those seasons and circumstances.

5 During the season of Easter an alleluia should be added at the end of the opening and communion antiphons.

6 On solemnities and feasts, one of the optional antiphons may be used, as found in the Antiphonal, page 1243.

DEDICATION OF A CHURCH

The Mass texts for the anniversary of the dedication of church are found in Ritual Masses, “Anniversary of the Dedication of a Church,” page 1036.

THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

God for ever and ever.

who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

spread the glory of your name throughout the world.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.

PRAYER

God for ever and ever.

grant us, your servants,
unfailing health of mind and body,
and through the glorious intercession of blessed Mary ever virgin

so may he take away our sins
and make our offering acceptable to you.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

On most weekdays, certain elements of the Order of Mass will not be included, for example, the Gloria, the second reading, the profession of faith, announcements. In accord with circumstances or the musical resources available, other elements may also be omitted, for example, the entrance procession or the gospel acclamation.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

ENTRANCE PROCESSION

After the people have assembled, the opening song is sung while the priest, deacon, and other ministers go to the altar.

When the priest and deacon come to the altar, they make the proper reverence with the ministers and kiss the altar. If incense is used, the priest incenses the altar while circling it. Then, with the deacon and ministers, the priest goes to the chair.

GREETING

After the opening song, the priest and the faithful remain standing; the priest faces the people. All make the sign of the cross, while the priest says:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The people answer:

Amen.

Then the priest, extending his hands, greets all present with one of the following greetings. (A bishop may say either Peace be with you or one of the following greetings.)

- A The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit
be with you all.
- B The Lord be with you.
- C The grace and peace of God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

- D Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father
and Christ Jesus our Lord

so rich in mercy and boundless in compassion,
be with you all.
- F Citizens with the saints and members of God's household,
grace and peace be with you.
- G The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
whose table we share,

I. RITE OF BLESSING AND SPRINKLING OF WATER

At Sunday Masses or on other suitable occasions the rite of blessing and sprinkling of water may be celebrated. After greeting the people, the priest remains standing at the chair, with a vessel of water in front of him.

INVITATION TO PRAYER

Facing the people, the priest invites them to pray, using one of the following invitations or similar words.

- A Let us pray, dear friends,
that the Lord our God may bless this gift of water,
which will be sprinkled upon us
to remind us of our baptism.

May God help us to remain faithful to the Holy Spirit we have received.

- B Brothers and sisters,
let us invoke and bless the name of God the all-holy,
that this water may be for us
a sign of the new life in Christ,
which in baptism we have all received.

BLESSING OF WATER

After a brief period of silence, the priest, with hands outstretched, sings or says one of the following prayers.

- A On Sunday only
- All-powerful and ever-living God,
your gift of water brings life and freshness to the earth;
by water we are cleansed from sin
and receive the gift of eternal life.
On this day which you have made your own
we ask you, Lord, to bless + this water:
may it be our safeguard and protection.

Renew in us the living fountain of your grace and defend us, soul and body, from evil,
that we may approach you with pure hearts
and worthily receive your gift of salvation.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The people answer:

Amen.

B Lord God almighty,
fountain and wellspring of all life,
we ask you to bless + this water.
With trust in you
we use it to beg forgiveness of our sins
and to seek the protection of your grace against illness and the snares of the enemy.
In your mercy, O Lord, give us the living water that wells up as a spring of salvation,
that we may avoid all dangers to body and soul
and enter your presence with hearts made clean.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The people answer:

Amen.

C

The priest sings: The people answer:

Praised be the Lord, the Cre - ator. Praised be the name of the Lord.
Praised be the Lord, the Resurrection and the Life. Praised be the name of the Lord.
Praised be the Lord, the Spir - it of holiness. Praised be the name of the Lord.

The priest continues:

Lord God, Creator and giver of life, bless this water which we use in faith.

Wash away the sin that di - vides us, make new life spring up with - in us, and lead us, whole and complete, into your presence to bless your glori-ous name.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

The people answer:

A - men. _____

D During the season of Easter

Lord God almighty,
hear the prayers of your people.
Send your blessing + upon this water,
as we recall the wonder of our creation
and the still greater work of our redemption.

You created water to make the fields fruitful
and to refresh and cleanse our bodies.

You made water the channel of your loving-kindness:
through water you delivered your people from bondage
and quenched their thirst in the desert.

The prophets used water to symbolise
the new covenant you would make with humankind.

Through water, which Christ made holy in the Jordan,
you have restored our sinful nature in the sacrament of rebirth.

May this water remind us of our own baptism,
and may we rejoice with our brothers and sisters
who have been baptised in this Easter season.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The people answer:

Amen.

BLESSING OF SALT

Where the local situation or popular tradition suggests that the mixing of salt and holy water be maintained, the priest blesses salt, saying:

God of power and might,
at your command the prophet Elisha threw salt into a spring of water to make it wholesome again.
We ask you, Lord, to bless + this salt created by your hand.

Grant in your mercy
that wherever this salt and water is sprinkled,
the attacks of the Evil One may be repelled and the presence of your Holy Spirit may keep us from harm.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The people answer:

Amen.

Then he pours the salt into the water in silence.

SPRINKLING

Taking the sprinkler, the priest sprinkles himself, the ministers of the Mass, and then other deacons and priests present and the people. He may move through the church for the sprinkling of the people.

Meanwhile an antiphon, page 1014, or hymn, or some other appropriate song is sung.

The opening prayer then follows.

II. PENITENTIAL RITE

INVITATION TO REPENTANCE

After the greeting, the priest invites the people to acknowledge their sins in silence and to repent of them, using one of the following invitations or similar words.

- A As we prepare to celebrate the mystery of Christ's love,
we confess that we are sinners
and ask the Lord for pardon and strength.
- B Gathered together in Christ,
let us ask forgiveness with confidence,

- A Let us sing the praises of the Lord,
the God who made us,
whose glory is from age to age.

People or Choir II:

The opening prayer then follows.

VI. OTHER OPENING RITE

Other opening rites are used on particular occasions and follow the prescriptions of the respective liturgical books. These rites occur on certain special feasts, or when the liturgy of the hours is combined with the Mass, or when special rites are celebrated during the Mass, for example, baptism or funeral rites. Sometimes the general structure of the introductory rites is modified, for example, on Passion Sunday or on the feast of the Presentation of the Lord, when an entrance procession forms part of this opening rite.

The opening prayer then follows.

OPENING PRAYER

The priest, with hands joined, invites the people to pray, singing or saying:

Let us pray.

All pray silently for a while.

Then the priest, with hands outstretched, sings or says the opening prayer.

At the end of the prayer, the people give their assent by the acclamation:

Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

All are seated for the liturgy of the word. During the liturgy of the word there are proper times for silence, for example, at the beginning, after the first and the second reading, after the homily. The priest may briefly introduce the liturgy of the word.

FIRST READING

The reader goes to the ambo for the first reading.

To indicate the end of the reading, the reader adds:

The word of the Lord.

All respond with the acclamation:

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The psalmist or cantor sings (or recites) the psalm from the ambo and the people make the response.

SECOND READING

If there is a second reading before the gospel, it is read at the ambo as before, if possible by a second reader.

To indicate the end of the reading, the reader adds:

The word of the Lord.

All respond with the acclamation:

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

All stand, and the Alleluia or other chant before the gospel is sung by the whole congregation, not only by the cantor who intones it or by the choir alone. If it is not to be sung, it is omitted.

Meanwhile, if incense is used, the priest puts some in the censer.

Then the deacon who is to proclaim the gospel makes a profound bow before the priest and in a low voice asks the blessing:

Father, give me your blessing.

The priest says in a low voice:

The Lord be in your heart and on your lips that you may worthily proclaim his holy gospel: in the name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit.

The deacon answers:

Amen.

If, however, there is no deacon, another priest who is to proclaim the gospel, or in his absence, the presiding priest himself, bows toward the altar, with hands joined, and says inaudibly:

Almighty God, cleanse my heart and my lips that I may worthily proclaim your holy gospel.

The deacon or, if there is no deacon, the priest goes to the ambo. He may be accompanied by ministers with incense and candles.

GOSPEL

The deacon or, if there is no deacon, the priest sings or says:

The Lord be with you.

The people answer:

And also with you.

The deacon (or priest) makes the sign of the cross on the book, and then on his forehead, lips, and breast, as he sings or says:

A reading from the holy gospel according to N.

All respond with the acclamation:

Glory to you, Lord.

Then, if incense is used, the deacon (or priest) incenses the book and proclaims the gospel.

After the gospel, the deacon (or priest) sings or says:
The gospel of the Lord.

All respond with the following or another suitable acclamation.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Then the deacon (or priest) kisses the book, saying inaudibly:
Through the words of the gospel may our sins be washed away.

HOMILY

All sit for the homily. It should ordinarily be given by the presiding priest, either at the chair, standing or sitting, or at the ambo. It should develop some point of the readings or of another text from the Ordinary or from the Proper of the Mass of the day and take into account the mystery being celebrated and the needs proper to the listeners.

There must be a homily on Sundays and holydays of obligation at all Masses that are celebrated with a congregation; it may not be omitted without a serious reason. It is recommended on other days, especially on the weekdays of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and the Easter season, as well as on feasts and occasions when the people come to church in large numbers.

Following the homily, if it was given at the ambo, the priest returns to the chair. A period of silence may be observed.

If catechumens are present, they may be kindly dismissed before the profession of faith.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

On Sundays and solemnities all stand and make the profession of faith together. It may be used also at special, more solemn celebrations. In celebrations of Masses with children and on other occasions when permitted, the Apostles' Creed (option B or C) may be used as the profession of faith.

Whenever there is a renewal of baptismal promises, the profession of faith is omitted.

If the profession of faith is sung, all are to sing it together or in alternation.

A NICENE CREED

All make a profound bow during the words was incarnate . . . made man.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

B APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

C

APOSTLES' CREED IN QUESTION FORM

The priest says:

Do you believe in God?

The people answer:

We believe in God, the Father almighty,
creator of heaven and earth.

The priest says:

Do you believe in Jesus Christ?

The people answer:

We believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

The priest says:

Do you believe in the Holy Spirit?

The people answer:

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

GENERAL INTERCESSIONS

The general intercessions (prayer of the faithful) then follow. The priest stands at the chair (or at the ambo) and presides, and the people take their own part. It is appropriate that this prayer be included in all Masses celebrated with a congregation, so that petitions will be offered for the Church, for civil authorities, for those oppressed by various needs, for all people, and for the salvation of the world. Sample texts are given on pages 1016-1028.

INVITATION

The priest briefly invites the congregation to pray.

INTENTIONS

The deacon, cantor, reader, another minister, or some of the faithful then announce the intentions from the ambo or other convenient place. The whole assembly expresses its supplication either by a response sung or said together after each intention or by brief periods of silent prayer.

CONCLUDING PRAYER

After the intentions, the priest, with hands outstretched, says the concluding prayer, to which the people respond:

Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

The people sit, and the song for the preparation of the gifts is begun.

PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR

The deacon and other ministers place on the altar the corporal, purificator, cup (if the cup is not prepared at the side table), and Sacramentary.

PRESENTATION OF THE GIFTS

The gifts are then brought forward. It is desirable that the faithful express their participation by bringing up the bread and wine for the celebration of the eucharist and other gifts for the poor and the needs of the Church. The gifts are received by the priest at a convenient place, with the deacon assisting. Money or other gifts are to be put in a suitable place but not on the altar.

The deacon may prepare the cup at the side table. He pours wine and a little water into the cup, saying inaudibly:

By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ, who humbled himself to share in our humanity.

At the altar, the deacon hands the priest the plate or other vessel with the bread to be consecrated or the priest takes the plate or other vessel with the bread and, holding it slightly raised above the altar, says inaudibly:

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. †
Through your goodness we have this bread to present to you,
which earth has given and human hands have made.
It will become for us the bread of life.

Then he places the plate with the bread on the corporal.

If no song for the preparation of the gifts is sung, the priest may say the preceding words in an audible voice. In this case the people may respond:

Blessed be God for ever.

If the cup has not been prepared at the side table, the deacon or, if there is no deacon, the priest pours wine and a little water into the cup, saying inaudibly the prayer By the mystery.

Then the deacon hands the priest the cup or the priest takes the cup and, holding it slightly raised above the altar, says inaudibly:

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. ††
Through your goodness we have this wine to present to you,
fruit of the vine and work of human hands.
It will become our spiritual drink.

In England and Wales only:

† Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation.
Through your goodness we have this bread to offer,
which earth has given and human hands have made.
It will become for us the bread of life.

†† Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation.
Through your goodness we have this wine to offer,
fruit of the vine and work of human hands.
It will become our spiritual drink.

He places the cup on the corporal.

If no song for the preparation of the gifts is sung, the priest may say the preceding words in an audible voice. In this case, the people may respond:

Blessed be God for ever.

The priest then bows profoundly and says inaudibly:

With humble and contrite hearts, Lord God, we ask you to receive us and to be pleased with our sacrifice this day.

The priest may now incense the gifts on the altar and the altar itself. Afterward, the deacon or another minister incenses the priest and the people.

Next, the priest stands at the side of the altar and washes his hands, saying inaudibly:

Lord, wash away my iniquity; cleanse me from my sin.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

All stand. The priest, standing at the centre of the altar, extends his hands and invites the people to pray, using one of the following invitations. At the conclusion of the invitation, he joins his hands.

A Pray, brothers and sisters, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

The people respond:

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands
for the praise and glory of God's name, for our good, and the good of all the Church.

B Let us pray.

All pray silently for a while.

Then the priest, with hands outstretched, sings or says the prayer over the gifts.

At the end of the prayer, the people give their assent by the acclamation:

Amen.

E U C H A R I S T I C P R A Y E R

The priest leads the assembly in the eucharistic prayer. The people take part reverently and attentively and make the acclamations. The eucharistic prayer may be sung (see pages 821–881).

P R E F A C E

D I A L O G U E

The priest begins the eucharistic prayer. Extending his hands, he sings or says:

The people answer:

He lifts up his hands and continues:

The people answer:

With hands outstretched, he continues:

The people answer:

The priest continues the preface with hands outstretched. Alternative openings for the prefaces may be found on pages 508–509.

SANCTUS

At the end of the preface, the priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

PREFACE OF ADVENT I

The two comings of Christ

This preface is used in Masses of the season of Advent from the First Sunday of Advent to 16 December and in other Masses celebrated during this period which have no Preface of their own.

The Lord be with you.

— And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

— We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

— It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right and just,
our duty and our salvation,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

When first he came among us
in the lowliness of human flesh,
he fulfilled the plan you formed long ago
and opened for us the way to salvation.

He is the one foretold by all the prophets,
whom the Virgin Mother awaited with love beyond all telling,
the one whose coming John the Baptist heralded,
and whose presence he proclaimed.

This same Lord invites us to prepare with joy
for the mystery of his birth,
so that when he comes
he may find us watchful in prayer,
our hearts filled with wonder and praise.

And so, with angels and archangels,
with all the heavenly host,
we proclaim your glory
and join their unending chorus of praise:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

ascended to the highest heavens
while angels gazed in wonder.

Salvation through Christ

This preface is used in Masses which have no Preface of their own, when a seasonal preface is not called for.

— It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right and just,
our duty and our salvation,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

In love you created the human race,
in justice we were condemned,
but in mercy you redeemed us,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through him the choirs of angels and all the powers of heaven
worship in awe before your presence.

May our voices blend with theirs
as they sing with joy the hymn of your glory:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

but in a Trinity of one nature.

All that you reveal of your glory
we believe also of your Son and of the Holy Spirit.

In confessing the true and eternal Godhead
we adore three distinct Persons,
one in being and equal in majesty.

And so, with angels and archangels,
with cherubim and seraphim,
we sing the unending hymn of your glory:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

As we eat his body, given for us,
we grow in strength.
As we drink his blood, poured out for us,
we are washed clean.

And so, with angels and archangels,
with all the heavenly host,
we proclaim your glory

At the Last Supper, as he sat at table with his apostles, Jesus offered himself to you as the Lamb without blemish,
the acceptable gift that gives you perfect praise.
He left this memorial of his passion
to continue its saving power until the end of time.

In this great sacrament you feed your people
and strengthen them in holiness,
so that the human family, which shares the same earth,
may be enlightened by one faith
and drawn together by one love.

We come then to this sacramental table to be transformed by your grace into the likeness of the risen Christ.

And, therefore, earth unites with heaven
to sing a new song of praise;
we too join with the hosts of angels
as they proclaim your glory without end:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

so great was his love.
From his wounded side flowed blood and water,
the fountain of the Church's sacraments,
that all might be led to the heart of the Saviour
and joyfully draw from the springs of salvation.

Now, with all the angels and saints,
we praise your glory without end:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

We praise your greatness as we honour the prophet who prepared the way before your Son.
Among those born of woman
you marked John the Baptist with your special favour.
His birth brought great rejoicing;
even in the womb he leapt for joy, so near was our salvation.

Alone of all the prophets, John pointed to the Lamb
who would take away our sins.
He baptised Jesus, the giver of baptism,
in waters made holy by the one baptised.
By shedding his blood
he gave his last and greatest witness to your Son.

With joyful hearts we echo on earth
the song of the angels in heaven
as they praise your glory without end:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

Paul became the teacher and apostle of the Gentiles.

Each in his appointed way gathered into unity
the one family of Christ.

They shared a martyr's crown

With joyful hearts we echo on earth
the song of the angels in heaven
as they praise your glory without end:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

and that Satan, who conquered through a tree,
might on a tree be overcome,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through him the choirs of angels and all the powers of heaven
worship in awe before your presence.

May our voices blend with theirs
as they sing with joy the hymn of your glory:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

and prefigure the beginning of the Church,

Purest of virgins, she was to bring forth your Son,
the innocent Lamb who takes away our sins.
You chose Mary before all others
to be our gracious advocate and our pattern of holiness.

And so we join the multitude of angels
in their joyful chorus of praise:

She conceived in her virginal womb
the Word she had first received in her most pure heart, and by giving birth to the Creator of all
she nurtured the Church at its beginnings.

Standing beneath the cross,
Mary accepted her Son's last loving wish and took to herself as sons and daughters
all those who by his death are born to new life.

She joined her prayers with those of the apostles,
as together they awaited the coming of your Spirit, and thus she became the perfect pattern of the Church at prayer.

Raised to the glory of heaven,
she cares for the pilgrim Church with a mother's love,
following its progress homeward
until the Day of the Lord dawns in splendour.

Now, with all the angels and saints,
we praise your glory without end:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

And so we join the throng of saints and angels
as they sing the unending hymn of your praise:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

we too join with the hosts of angels
as they proclaim your glory without end:

in the likeness of Christ
and make us one in him:
one in the faith we profess

In the covenant of marriage
you draw man and woman together
in a life-long bond of harmony and peace,
so that their chaste and fruitful love
may bring forth children you adopt as your own.

For by your providence and grace
you carry out this wonderful design:
the birth of children brings beauty to the world
and their rebirth in baptism enriches the Church.

Through Christ the choirs of angels
and all the saints proclaim your glory.
May our voices join their unending chorus of praise:

through Jesus Christ our Lord.

You have forged in him a new covenant with your people, redeeming us by his death and resurrection
and making us partakers of the divine nature
and joint heirs with him to eternal glory.
In the love that binds husband and wife
you have given us a sacrament that speaks of Christ's outpouring of grace and calls to mind the wonderful plan of your love.

And so, with the angels and all the saints in heaven,
we proclaim your glory
and sing the unending hymn of your praise:

PREFACE OF ORDINATION OF BISHOPS AND PRESBYTERS

— It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right and just,

holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

By the anointing of the Holy Spirit
you made your only-begotten Son High Priest of the new and eternal covenant, and with heavenly wisdom ordained
that his one priesthood should continue in the Church.

Christ accords the dignity of a royal priesthood
to the people he has made his own.
Some of these he chooses with a brother's care
to share his sacred ministry by the laying on of hands.

He appoints them to renew in his name
the sacrifice of our redemption
and to set before your family the paschal meal.
He calls them to lead your holy people in love,
nourish them with your word,
and strengthen them through the sacraments.

They are to offer their lives to your service
and for the salvation of all,
as they strive to grow in the likeness of Christ and to honour you
by their courageous witness of faith and love.

And so we join the angels and saints
in the joyous hymn of your praise:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
through your servant Jesus Christ our Lord.

Revealed at his baptism as your beloved Son,
he came among us as one who serves,
and taught that they are greatest in the kingdom
who make themselves least and the servants of all.
Though Teacher and Lord,
he washed the feet of his disciples,
commanding us to do the same.

You bestow upon your people
a rich variety of gifts and ministries, that we may serve the world your Son redeemed
and build up his body, the Church,
to the greater glory of your name.

With joyful hearts we echo on earth
the song of the angels in heaven
and join their unending chorus of praise:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

Born without sin, the son of the Virgin Mother,
he called those blessed who were pure of heart and taught by his way of life the excellence of chastity.
He chose to do always what is pleasing to you,
and for our sake became obedient even unto death,
offering himself to you as a perfect sacrifice.
He consecrated more closely to your service
those who leave all things for your sake,
and promised them a treasure in heaven.

And so we join the throng of saints and angels
as they sing the unending hymn of your praise:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

places designed for your worship.
With hearts full of joy
we consecrate to your glory
this work of our hands, this house of prayer.

Here is foreshadowed the mystery of your true temple,
here an earthly image of your heavenly city.
For you made the body of your Son,
born of the Virgin,
a temple consecrated to your glory,
the dwelling place of the Godhead in all its fullness.

You have established the Church as a holy city,
founded on the apostles,
with Jesus Christ its cornerstone.
You continue to build your Church with chosen stones, made living by the Spirit
and cemented together by love.
In that holy city you will be all in all for endless ages,
and Christ will be its everlasting light.

Now, with all the angels and saints,
we proclaim your glory without end:

where you never refuse to show your people favour on their pilgrimage to you.
Here in sacramental signs
you manifest and accomplish
the mystery of your dwelling among us.
Here you shape us as your holy temple
and build up the whole Church,

the vision of your peace.

And so, with all the angels and saints,
we bless you in the temple of your glory
and join in their chorus of praise:

The priest joins his hands and, together with the people, sings or says the Sanctus.

preparing it for heavenly glory
as the spotless Bride of Christ

we praise your glory without end:

True priest and true victim,
he offered himself to you on the altar of the cross, and commanded us to celebrate the memorial of that sacrifice
until he comes again.
Therefore your people have built this altar and dedicate it to your name with grateful hearts.

This is a truly sacred place:
here the sacrifice of Christ is offered in mystery,
perfect praise is given to you,
and our redemption made continually present.

Here is prepared the Lord's table,
at which your children,
